Our Finest Hour

Kiski Area High School

Two Hundred Poplar Street
Vandergrift, Pennsylvania 15690

Population : 1460

1996 Campus
Volume 34

If we think for a moment, many of us at Kiski Area High School are able to pinpoint some of Our Finest Hours. Many think back to one special game, meet, or match in which they emerged victorious. Numerous others can still hear the roar of the audience after they completed a flawless concert. Some will recall the moment they realized they had made honor roll after many months of hard work and dedication. There are also those who will always fondly remember the magic of the prom. We all tend to consider those times we spent in the spotlight as our finest.

In addition to the unforgettable moments are memories which are equally as valuable. All the "important" lunch table stories, endless phone conversations about nothing in particular, and walks with friends between classes probably do not immediately come to mind. Only after we move on and learn to live without them do we realize how truly special they were. These seemingly ordinary, everyday events are the ones we eventually will come to treasure the most. As adults, we will find ourselves remembering how we met our "old childhood friends" and then reliving the fun times, secrets, disappointments and promises shared with our best friends. Suddenly, we'll be wishing for more of those carefree times. When we think back to our high school days, we should not limit what we considered to be Our Finest Hour to only the times that we shined in the spotlight. Our truly finest moments are the ones we have every day and continue to take for granted. Those are the times we will miss the most when we begin to go our separate ways. We must all line our chosen paths with our spent sands of time. We can use them to learn from past mistakes; we can rely on them for guidance as we venture through life. Most importantly, we can treat them as lasting reminders of our years here at Kiski Area High School.

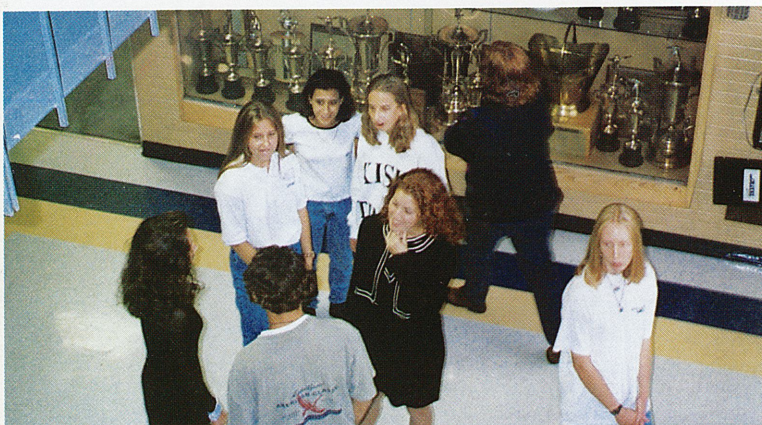

Matt Frederick and Jen Nemit are often found spending their free time together.

Yearbook staff members stand by in anticipation waiting for pictures.

Al Carney is caught making a new friend.

Chris Castoldi, Shoe Tying 101.

Kelly Beatty, you snooze, you lose!

As seniors, time is on our minds quite a lot. Whether it be enjoying favorite pastimes, dreading one more thing we do for the last time, or simply not having enough time for all of the tasks with which we are faced, we seniors must confront the tremendous impact time has on our lives. Our whole lives - past, present, and future - seem to turn on in this single year. We look back on days gone by, our first day of kindergarten, our first field trip, carefree games during recess, swapping lunch with a buddy, elementary graduation, and the frightening transition to all of the changes brought by the intermediate school. We also cherish the present: excitedly voting for senior specials, cheering for our favorite Homecoming

CAVALIER

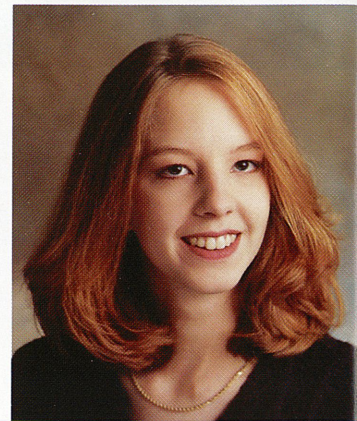

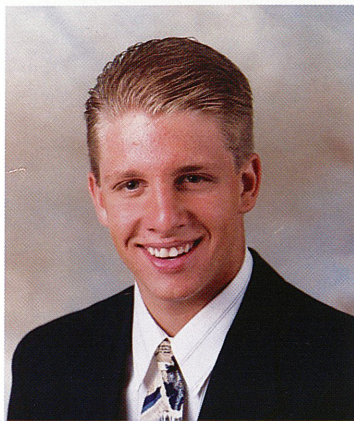

Queen candidate, playing our last game in Kiski Area uniform, performing one last time with our respective musical groups, trying to escape homeroom to meet with our friends, and simply living the last of our high school days to the fullest. Like it or not, we are forced to ponder the future as well. Some seniors can be seen frantically completing college applications to the school of their choice. Others are just doing their best to ensure they will be among those who graduate. For yet others, perfecting their trade skills is the way they hope to earn a position in the work force. As most seniors will agree, this bittersweet year is truly the "best of times" and the "worst of times" all wrapped into one. Good Luck, Class of 1996!

Senior Specials of the Class of 1996

Picture it. It is the year 2021, and the Class of 1996 has gathered for our 25th reunion. As we learn of the events that have occurred in each of our lives since graduation, we may look back on our senior special selections to see just how accurate our predictions were. For instance, will Olympic gold grace the necks of our Most Athletic? Will the Most Talkative be hosts of their own talk shows? Or will the Class Clowns be employed by Barnum and Bailey, Co.? Perhaps the Class Couple will be living in marital bliss. Only time will tell. However, we can be sure that senior specials will always remind us of those days in our senior year we spent comparing our votes with our friends and looking back on these past four years with fondness.

A smile and a greeting are always in order for the Most Popular seniors, Luke Pollick and Kara Harchuck.

The Most Artistic, Nathan Mazur and Jen Wilkins, are so talented it is hard to believe they ever drew stick figures.

"Gimme a K!" can be frequently heard from Greg Schmeiler and Jaynee Dykes, who were voted to have the Most School Spirit.

No matter what the occasion, you can always be sure Brad Hemphill and Alyssa Pike, the Best Dressed seniors, will have the perfect attire.

Look out world! This year's Most Likely to Succeed, Jarrod Kucharski and Nalene Filer are prepared to make an impact wherever they go.

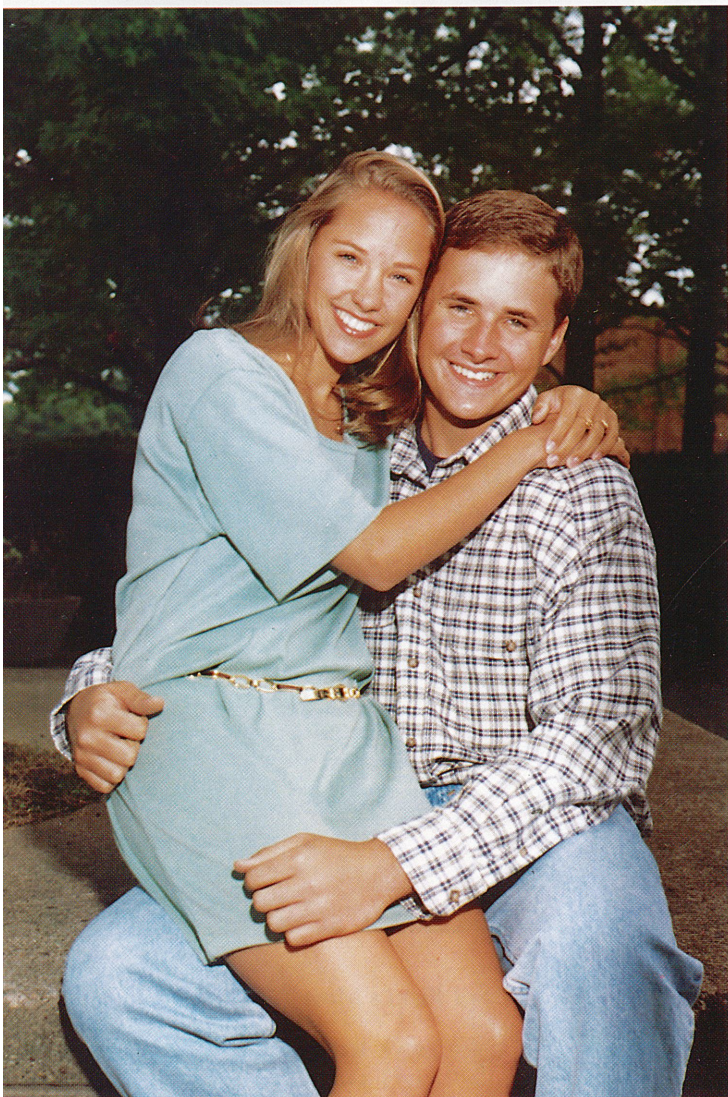

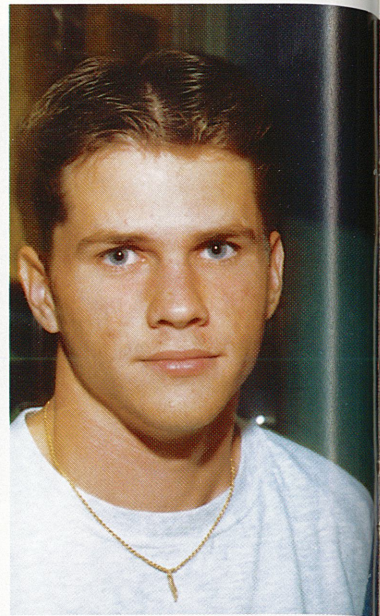

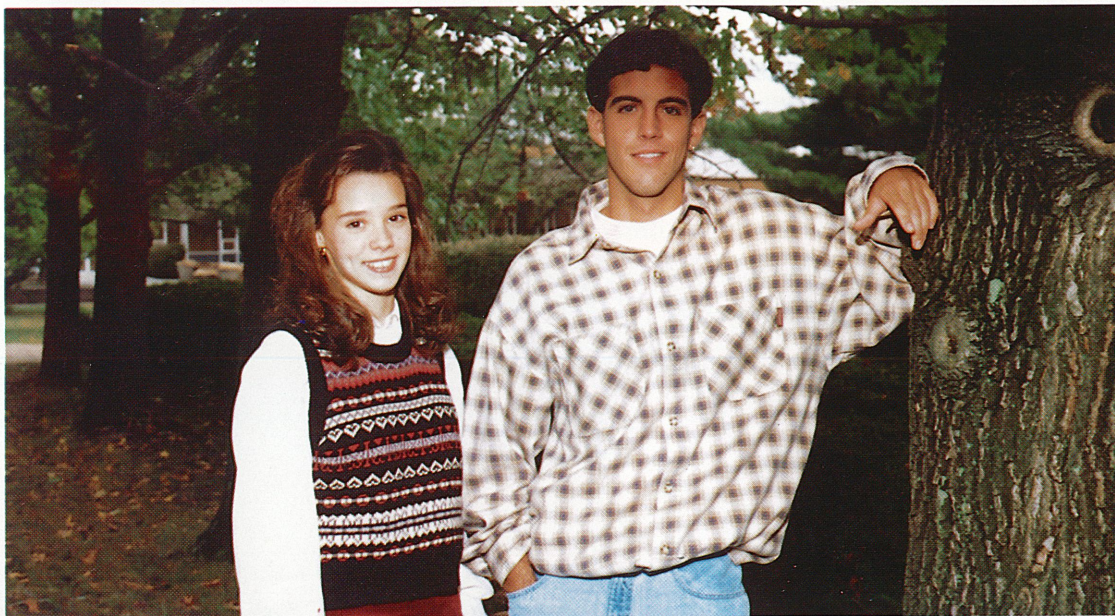

There's no way to zip the lips of Kiski's Most Talkative seniors, Justin Bonnoni and Jen Cable.

"Do, Re, Me..." Best Vocalist's George Oberdorf and Drasha Walker have come a long way since they first learned those notes.

Good looks aren't always important, but for Mike Tometsko and Julie DePanics, the Most Attractive, they just come naturally.

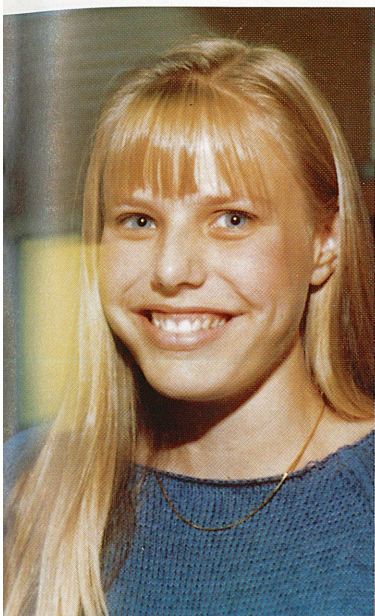

"When I look into your eyes..." Everyone spends as much time as possible gazing

True love always is more than just a cute saying for Class Couple Dave Holm and Nicci Sappe.

"Hey, good lookin'! What's cookin'?" That's what the Biggest Flirts, John Mazurek and Heidi McKrisky are wondering.

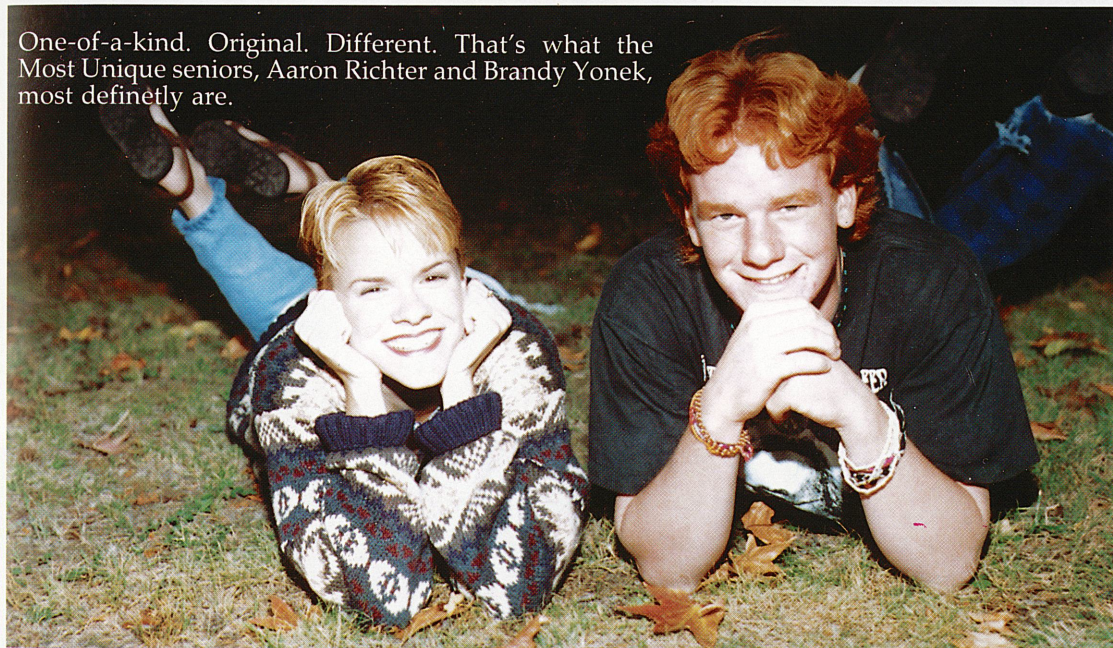

into the peepers of Barry Byers and Jodie Bricklemeyer, voted to have the Prettiest Eyes.

Best Instrumentalists Steve Jackson and Jessie Troilo take great pride in their ability to create beautiful melodies.

One-of-a-kind. Original. Different. That's what the Most Unique seniors, Aaron Richter and Brandy Yonek, most definitely are.

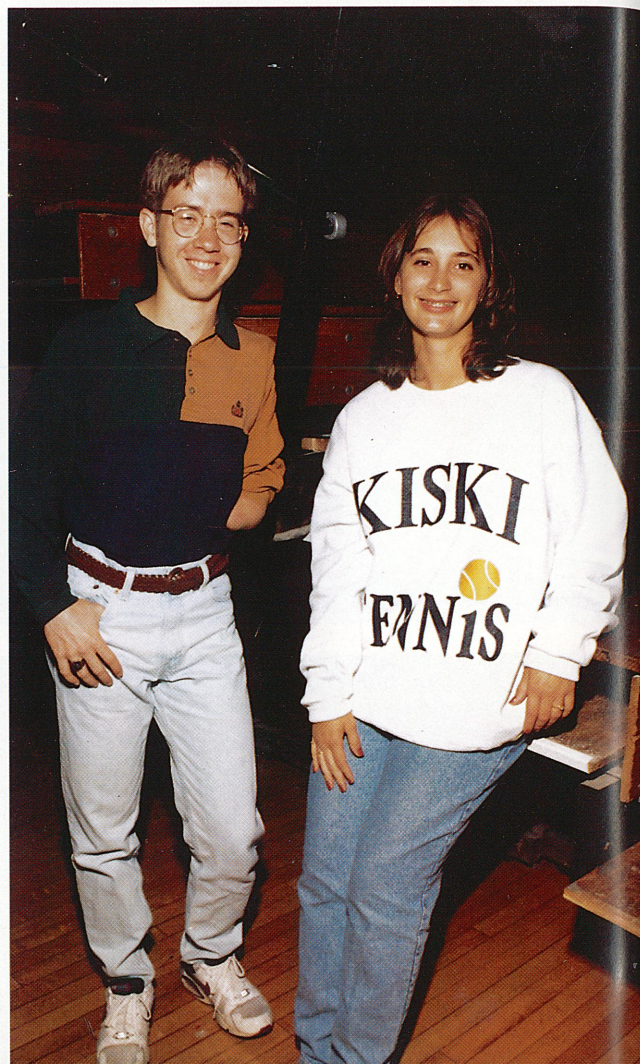

Most Mischievous seniors, Steve Mazak and Denise Ardison, seem to provide more tricks than treats to anyone during their stay near them.

Flash those pearlies! Everyone seems to find the Nicest Smiles of seniors Tony Chin and Jen Nemit truly infectious.

You can be sure there is never a frown on the faces of Kevin Kulick and Erin Mazanek, Kiski's Friendliest.

It seems that all that they are missing for Class Clowns B.J. Cernicky and Melissa Sikora are a big, red nose and some floppy shoes.

A cry of "Look! It's Elvis!" will no doubt turn the heads of the Most Gullible, Pat Klingensmith and Robyn George.

(Left) Who needs Jerry Rice and Jackie Joyner-Kersey when the Most Athletic, Ed Bayner and Sherri Cignetti, are around?

(Above) Aronld Schwarzenegger would be proud of the physical fitness and fine figures of Nathan Decker and Stacey Cochran, who were voted to have the Best Physiques.

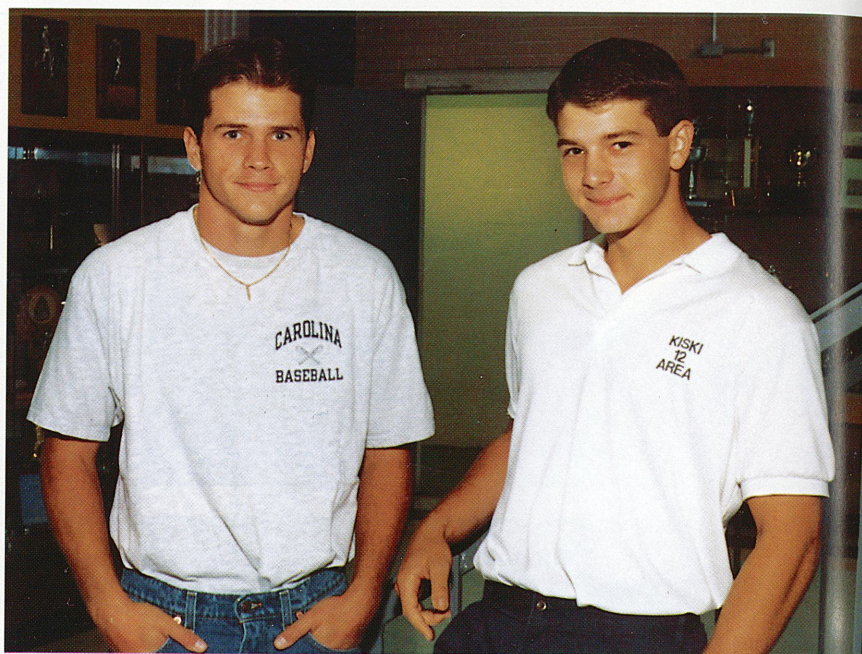

(Left) Who are Brian Putignano and Christy Frelino? Most people know them by their Best Nicknames, Putty and Tippy.

The Best of Times...

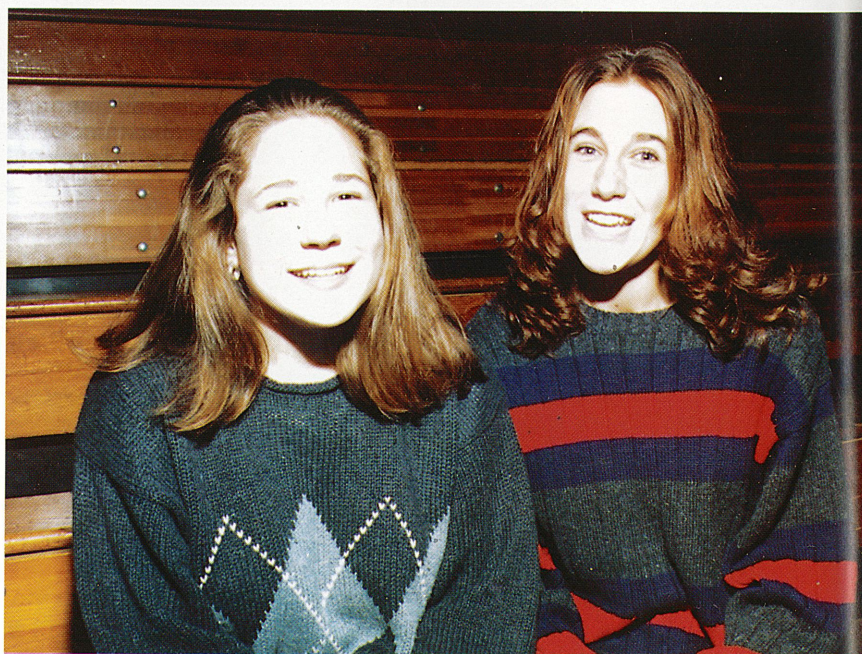

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven; a time to be born, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time of love and a time of hate; a time of war and a time of peace.

If you ever hear hysterical guffaws or comical snickers, they're probably coming from the seniors with the Funniest Laughs: Mark Flemm and Amy Ross.

Bosom buddies, best pals, and loyal chums are all phrases that accurately describe Best of Friends Barry Byers and Dennis Munko, and Meredith Dunmire and Karen Platko.

Homecoming Queen Crowned at Kiski

One Moment in Time

Queen Kelly Robron
and
Escort Lew Rhodes

The annual Homecoming Queen ceremony is one of the many timeless high school traditions. Each senior class looks forward to nominating the Court and crowning the Queen. At Kiski, all of the excitement culminates during halftime of the Homecoming football game at Davis Field. On the evening of October sixth, nineteen hundred ninety-five, the atmosphere was filled with anticipation and storybook expectations as the eight members of this year's Court gathered on the field to await the decision. The members of the court were: Stacey Cochran, Julie DePanice, Kara Harchuck, Kristen Intrieri, Heidi McKrisky, Kelly Robron, Amy Ross, and Nicci Sappe. Some young ladies dream about the prospect of being the Homecoming Queen since their childhoods. The deciding moment has finally arrived... The faces of Miss Kelly Robron, her friends, and her family were filled with joy upon the much anticipated announcement. Congratulations to Kelly and each of the members of the Court for receiving the coveted honor.

Kelly and Lew gracefully walk across the field waiting for the big moment. Finally as the band begins to play, Kelly walks over to last year's Queen, Michelle Morganti, to receive her crown. At last, the crown is placed on Kiski's new Homecoming Queen, Kelly Robron.

Top Ten Junior Year Highlights

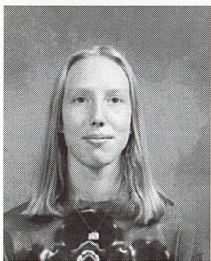

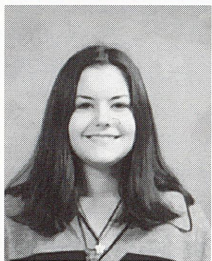

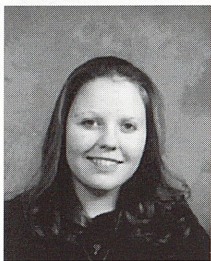

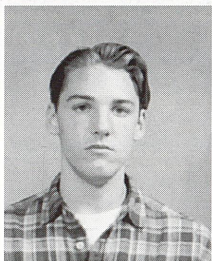

1. Going to the prom, and noting afterwards that you could have made a down payment on a new Mustang convertible at the same price.
2. Candy sales. After a few days, you realized that freshmen are candy animals.
3. Taking the PSAT's. Did you connect the dots to make a pretty picture?
4. Trying not to singe the hair of the person beside you at the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony.
5. If you were in Mr. Trunzo's class, you experienced the suspense of trying to guess what his yardstick would be each day. A rifle? A banjo? A sword? A cue stick?
6. Trying to discover that elusive tenth dimension in physics.
7. Learning to stay within the lines when coloring Asia for World Cultures class.
8. Experiencing what it feels like to be a human sardine in the Lower Cafeteria.
9. Figuring out how to use those graphics calculators effectively. How do you shoot that duck again?
10. Everybody in the high school (about 1500 people in all) can watch you on KAE-TV as you report Kiski's informative news.

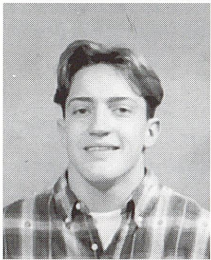

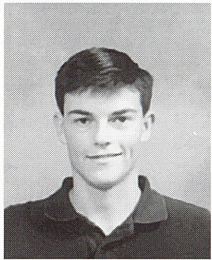

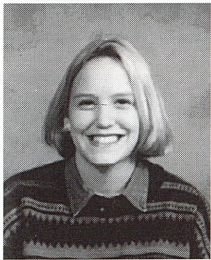

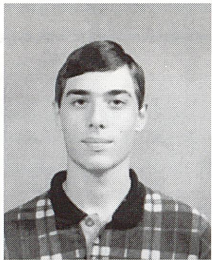

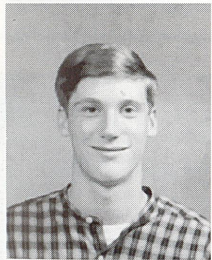

Kelly Wright and Gabi Nastuck, along with Kelley McNichols and Missy Domiano, hope to always be as close as there are now.

Time After Time

Sophomores

Danielle Sproull and her friends spend the final minutes of lunch time gossiping about their day. Make sure you remember to throw away your garbage.

Sophomores Ken Camden and Justin Cipa work diligently on their art projects. Time sure flies when you're having fun.

Top Ten Sophomore Highlights

1. You finally moved up on the high school ladder.
2. Collecting dues is easier than selling candy or magazines.
3. It's an honor to be trusted with sulfuric acid in chemistry.
4. It was fun creating the genetic code of the world's smartest laboratory rat in biology.
5. You have a slightly clearer idea as to which branch of the back hallway to travel to arrive at the front library entrance.
6. You have become a much wiser cafeteria consumer... a Snickers is healthier than a Milky Way, right?
7. You have learned about World War I, the Persian Gulf War, and just about everything in between.
8. You could try out for Varsity sports, Mock Trial, and elite music groups.
9. The SAT's are still months away. (But start reading the dictionary now!)
10. Sixteen Candles, four wheels, and a set of keys... what a nice combination.

The background of the entire page is a dense, repeating pattern of various clock faces. These clocks are of different shapes and sizes, including round, octagonal, and square designs. Some have simple hands and numbers, while others are more ornate with decorative elements like sunbursts or intricate patterns around the face. The pattern is light-colored, likely white or light gray, against a darker background.

Top Ten Most Drastic Changes from the Intermediate School

1. Everything at the intermediate school is about thirty years newer.
2. The lockers are even more narrow at the high school.
3. Instead of taking a morning nap, you have to change it to an afternoon siesta (Activity Period).
4. No air conditioning in the 200's or 300's - - get used to the friendly hum of the oscillating fans.
5. Twice as many students and teachers to remember.
6. Pool class in the winter. (What's wrong with this picture?)
7. In the spring, you can take leisurely strolls through the courtyard between classes.
8. In the winter time, you experience blustery speedwalks through the snow-covered courtyard between classes.
9. No running down the ramp- -the high school doesn't have one.
10. An elevator and underground tunnel- - don't get too excited- - both are usually locked.

Turning Back The Hands Of Time

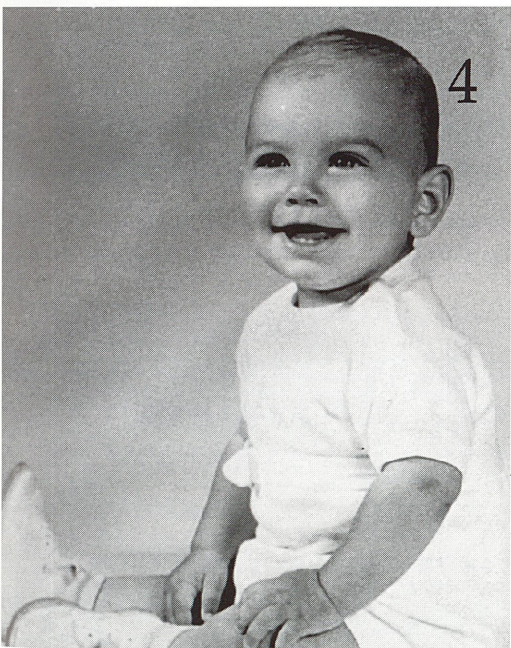

This full spirited man is always smiling in front of people.

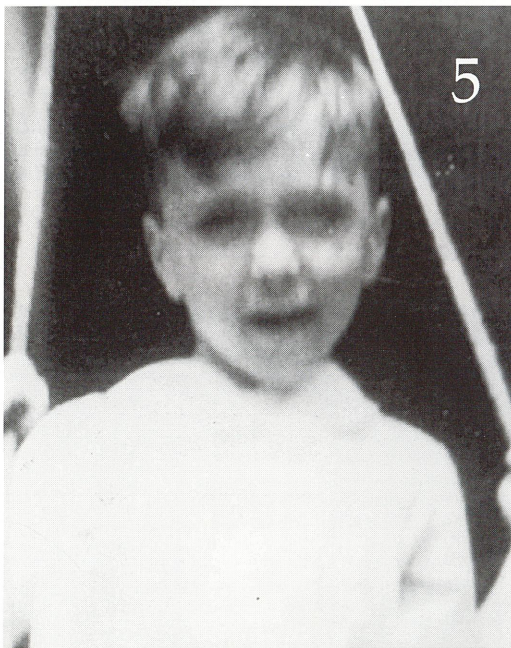

This woman thinks all of her students are special.

Who would have guessed that this butterball would be a chemistry teacher?

This little blue-eyed baby is still about the same height.

This little boy has always had his head up in the stars.

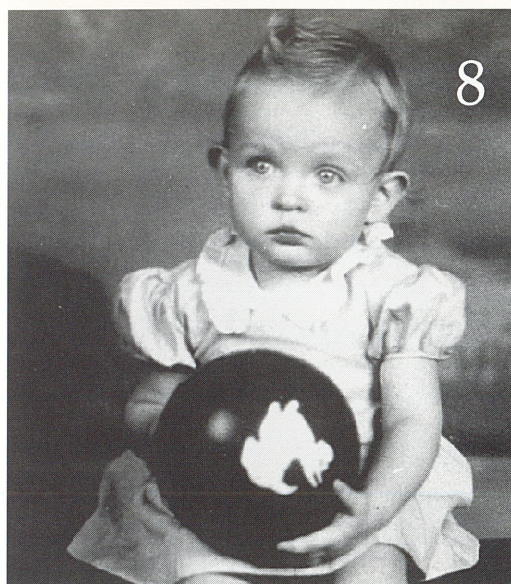

This little boy likes to stay between the lines.

This teacher is on top of things with the government.

8

This call director was born to play play bocce.

9

When she teaches, she makes a splash.

10

This teacher is in tune with Kiski.

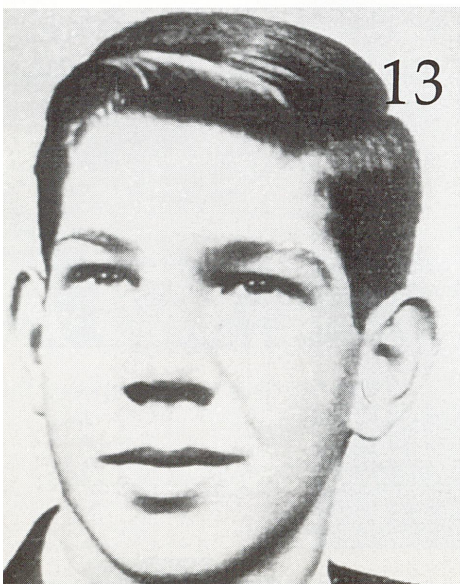

11

This little girl has always had a healthy outlook on life.

12

For this lady, one hand on the phone and one hand on the computer, is typical.

13

Tank was a 240lb. Disco Duck.

14

This "Brat" now teaches English.

15

An Italian who knows her "type."

16

Just like Betty Crocker, she keeps getting younger.

17

This girl's English speaking skills came at an early age.

18

This girl has always looked at things in a positive angle.

19

How ironic - This picture was taken at a new school.

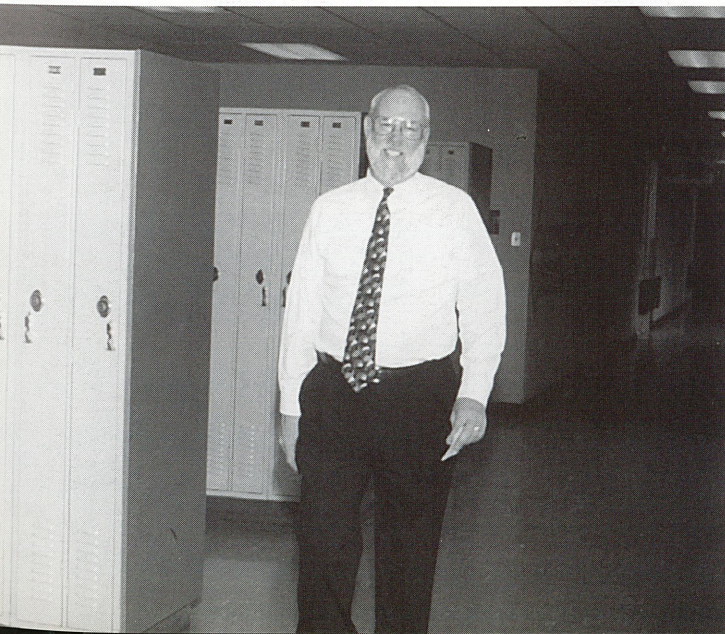

20

I love word problems!

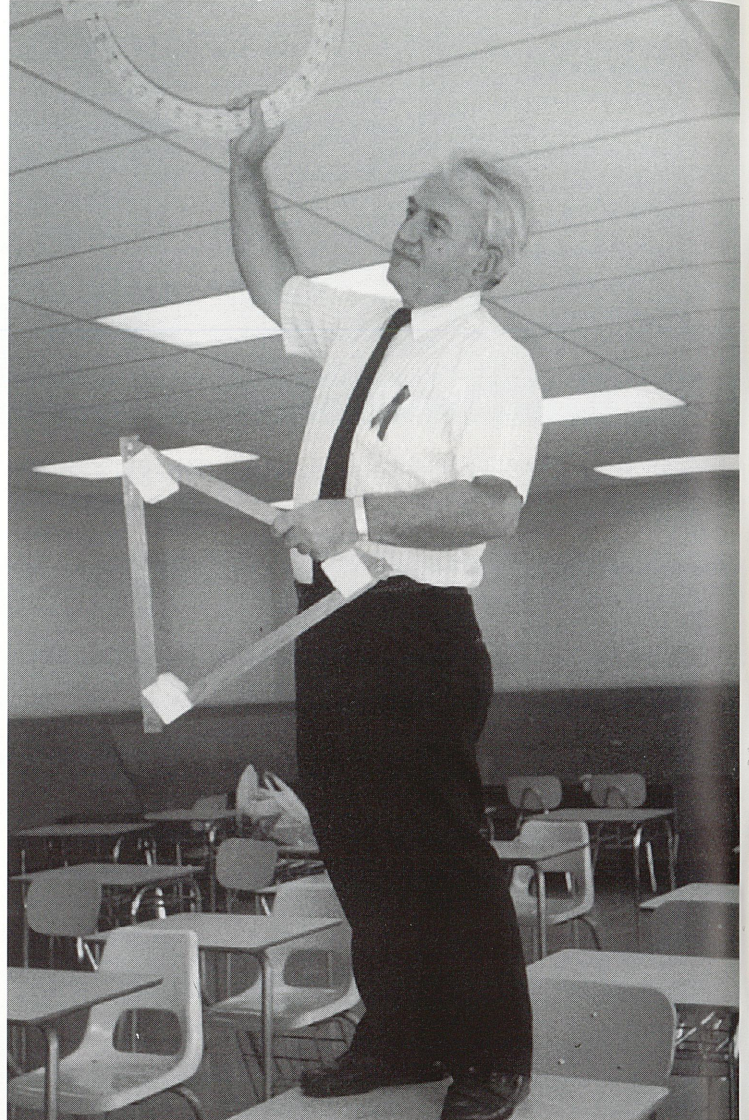

21

No hair means all brains for this child.

Some things never change...Dr. Shaner's baby picture has a striking resemblance to his current appearance. Or is this his current picture? At any rate, he's all smiles as he walks down the hall at Kiski.

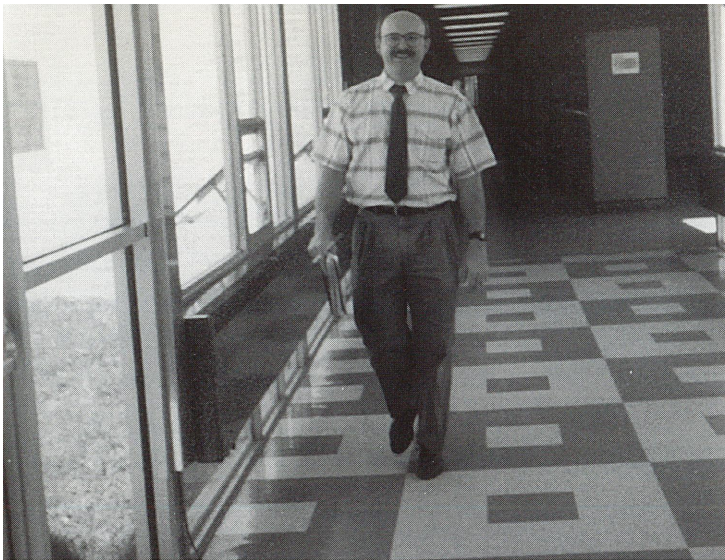

Left: Mrs. Rossi, are you exercising your jaw again?!
Below: Mr. Dudzik, proves his points by measuring the ceiling.

Right: Mr. Antenucci and student teacher Mr. Russell are hard at work. They are so dedicated that they even work through lunch.

Mr. Norton takes a moment to catch up on the news.

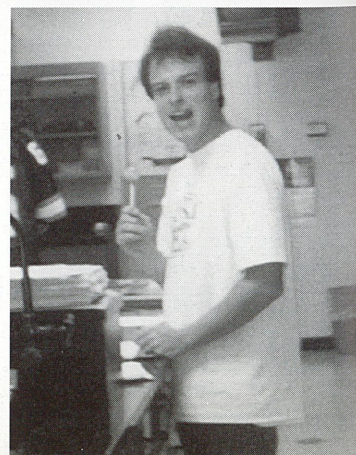

This picture is proof that Mrs. Nancy Kettering, geometry teacher, is always organized.

Right: Mr. Kuchanski supports the National Honor Society by buying a lollipop. Are you sure you should be eating that in class?

Teacher of The Year

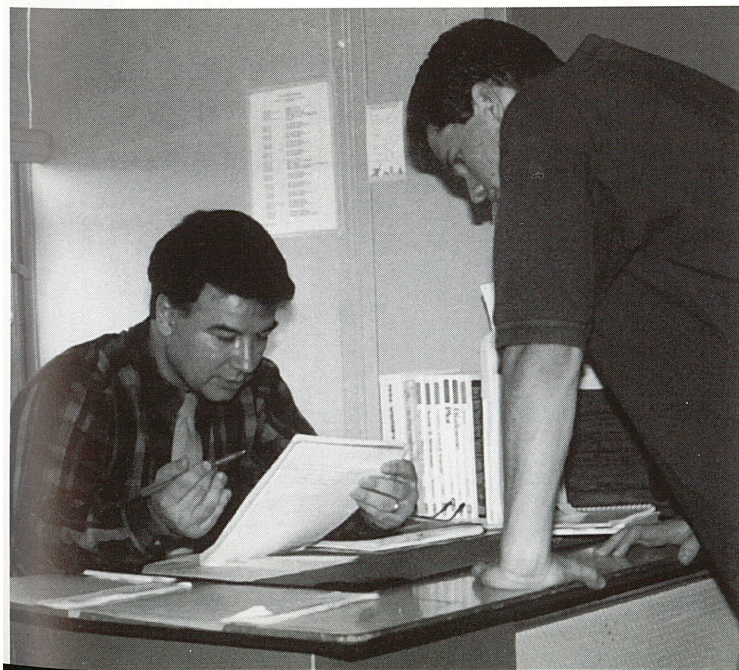

Mr. James Trunzo

Two of the greatest faults students find with high school in general are the extreme emphasis placed on letter grades and lack of excitement in the classroom. Mr. James Trunzo, one of Kiski's English and Creative Writing teachers, does his best to eliminate these common sources of frustration. Every year he tells his students that a letter on a report card and a sky high GPA mean absolutely nothing unless they are accompanied by true knowledge. He believes that the best way to motivate his students to learn is to be a caring and enthusiastic person. His plan is successful year after year! He encourages all of his students to become perceptive readers and better writers, and must put a sincere effort to improve. Mr. Trunzo emphasizes that perfecting these communication skills is the key to success in numerous career endeavors. Mr. Trunzo goes far beyond preparing his students for the workplace. He also gives his students advice on "real-world" issues so that they can make correct decisions about their lives. Many students consider Mr. Trunzo to be an ally, someone who is always willing to listen and help. He also never lets his students' accomplishments go unnoticed. He is quick to praise and congratulate them on their scholastic and extracurricular achievements. Mr. Trunzo's commitment to being a teacher goes far beyond the classroom. He brings learning down to a one-to-one level, and this is one of the reasons he is so well liked and respected. Mr. Trunzo has made quite a lasting impression on the class of 1995. They elected him as their Teacher of the Year. Congratulations, Mr. Trunzo. Your students applaud you.

Above: Mr. Trunzo always has a smile on his face. No wonder the students enjoy his classes so much.

Having the Time of My Life

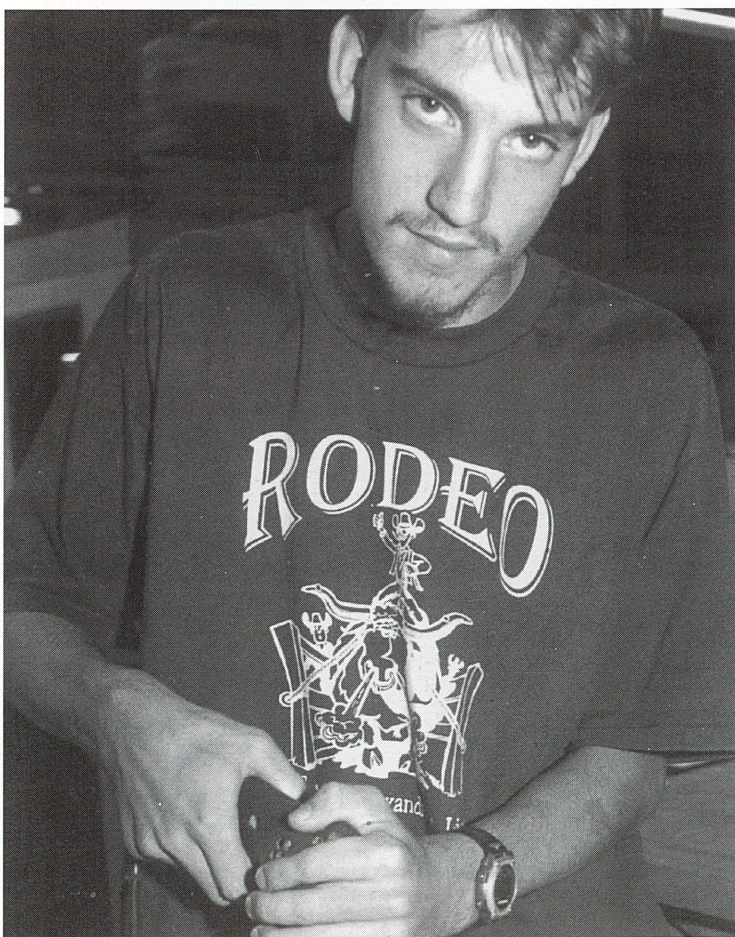

At the Northern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center (N.W.C.T.C), students are trained in a variety of fields, including cosmetology, auto mechanics, and medical assisting. Located in New Kensington, the N.W.C.T.C. prepares its students for a bright future. Kiski Area shares these opportunities with Franklin Regional, Valley, and Burrell school districts. The helpful teachers aid in the learning process of these hard-working students. The active vo-tech students learn, in their high school years, the necessary skills which will assist them in their future careers. Not only do these students get the opportunity to work with others in their field, but also the opportunity to learn in an atmosphere where their trade comes first. Most of the vocational students acquire knowledge through hands-on experience. These students find out through their active education where they will excel in their professions. Our future welders, cosmetologists, and mechanics are in this distinguished group. Our best wishes to all the vocational students. We hope you have a triumphant future.

Athletics

The girls' cross country team celebrates their victory as PIAA State Champions. Kiski Area wishes them well next year. They should be proud of their great performance.

Sandra Smith, Kristen Kimble, and Sara Raschiatore are heading for the finish line. If they keep up their pace, they're sure to come in first.

One Moment in Time

On your mark...get set...go!! Go...that's exactly what the 1995 girls cross country team did. They kept running until they met their utmost potential. The girls team completed yet another impressive season this year. They won their section for the seventh season in a row and remained undefeated for the sixth season straight. They established themselves as the team to beat in Pennsylvania with strong victories at all three of the invitationals they attended: Gateway, Big Red, and Slippery Rock. Then came the time to prove their talent to the WPIAL and the entire state. Coach George Argyros, the runners' families, and all the other Kiski supporters wondered if the girls could finally pull together and accomplish what they were capable of. These girls won in remarkable fashion and conquered a feat reached by few — WPIAL and PIAA champions! How did they accomplish something that is only dreamed of by each cross country runner in the state? To put it simply, it was strength in numbers. The team had thirteen solid runners who were willing to put forth their maximum effort to get the job done and the races won. Although only seven actually ran at the state meet that it was held at Penn State on November 4, the team feels that it was everyone's efforts that got them so far. Molly Skwirut, the senior captain, says, "Winning states was the best moment of my life. I will remember it always." All the running and training began in late June with conditioning workouts. During these practices, which included weight lifting and running, the team prepared for the traditional 3.1 mile course that they would face in races in the autumn. By the time the actual racing season began in September, the runners were putting in an average of 30 miles per week. They were preparing themselves to be the best team they could possibly be. These girls did just that and came away with it all in a very memorable season.

Molly Skwirut, the only senior on this state championship team, can only pause for a brief minute for this picture.

Left: Coach Argyros lines up his team at the start. Make sure everybody's toes are behind the line. Above: The girls on this team run not only for themselves, but for each other too.

The season for the boys' cross country team was a remarkable one. They finished 9-1 and were victorious in their section. They also accomplished something the team hadn't done in years, they advanced to the WPIAL finals. They placed 13th there in a good showing. The team had senior tri-captains this season: Matt Baustert, Bob Ralston, and Steve Stankay. The MVP was senior Todd DeLuca. Because the team will lose eight seniors next fall, Coach, Mr. George Argyros, feels, "The team will be average next season. It will be a rebuilding year." Mr. Argyros has coached the cross country team for nine seasons, and he always succeeds in helping his runners prepare for a successful season. Runners race against more than a clock; they compete with themselves and try to be successful at every race. This quality alone brought the boys' team much success. Best of luck to the graduating seniors. Let's hope the underclassmen can keep the winning tradition alive.

Memorable Times

Most members of the 1995 volleyball team will tell you that their mediocre 8-8 final record is not an accurate reflection of the success they achieved this year. As a senior player and Most Valuable Player, Autumn Dunn stated, "We achieved success off the court by learning to look past one another's weaknesses and pulling together as a unit." The result of such adjustments was the forging of many friendships.

After losing four senior starters, many on-court adjustments became necessary. Not only were many players introduced to the varsity scene, but some were forced to master new positions, as well. Although the Lady Cavs failed to secure a playoff birth for the first time in many years, head coach Liz Kovach felt that many players made tremendous strides this year, and that progress will greatly benefit next year's team. Another positive outlook for next year was the outstanding success of this year's Junior Varsity Team. The team won first place in both Upper Saint Clair and Kiski JV Tournaments. These ladies are certainly ready to bump, set, and spike their way into a bright future.

Time Flies

Despite the unseasonably cold and rainy weather, the 1995 boys and girls spring track and field teams performed very well. Many runners, jumpers, throwers, and hurdlers met and exceeded their personal goals. The boys, coached by Mr. Feudale, finished their season with a record of 9-1. Joe Vaglia, a junior captain, says he is looking forward to the 1996 season because he feels that the team can dominate the section. The highlight of the girls' season was winning the Westmoreland County, WCCA, meet. It was extremely close. The girls edged out the defending champions, Hempfield, by one and a half points. The girls also won their section and advanced to WPIAL playoffs. However, they lost by a small margin to Butler in the first round.

The two teams practice every day beginning in March on the all-weather track located behind the gym. This training that the runners, jumpers, and throwers put in is essential to building up their endurance. Therefore, many of them begin conditioning and preparing for the upcoming season in winter track. Mr. Halli feels that, "The keys to success as a track and field athlete are the five S's: speed, skill, suppleness, strength, and stamina."

One exciting thing to look forward to in the 1996 track and field season is the introduction of the girls' pole vaulting as an exhibition event. Depending on its popularity, it may be an actual event in 1997. Track and Field is certainly growing and improving in Western Pennsylvania. The atmosphere of a track meet is incredible. There is so much energy and emotion at the Kiski track. Best of luck to the Kiski Area track teams.

If I Could Turn Back Time

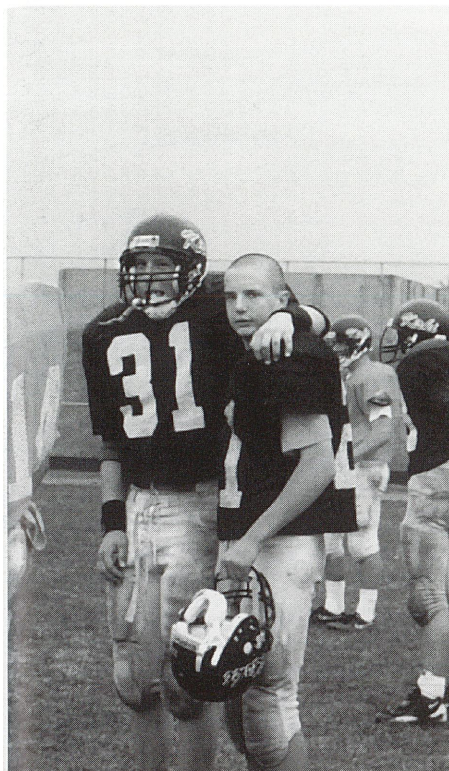

Sometimes the outcomes of football games are not at all what the team expected. For example, the Buffalo Bills didn't plan on losing four Super Bowls in a row. Things just didn't go their way. So it is, also, for our 1995 Cavalier football team. Going into the season, their goal was to improve their 5-5 record of the 1994 season. Mr. Kunselman was beginning his second season of coaching at Kiski Area, and the team knew what was expected of them — a focused attitude, agility, strength, coordination, and teamwork. Captains, Mark Brink, Jeremy Moore, and Ryan Szuch were ready to set positive examples and lead the team.

Workouts and strength conditioning continue year-round, and the team members out in 10-12 hour practices every day at camp in August. Late in the summer of 1995, the Pittsburgh

Tribune Review previewed that the lack of size among Kiski's players would be their greatest obstacle and disadvantage. The Tribune was correct. Greg Schmieler was Kiski's largest man, weighing in at a mere 245 lbs, relative to some of the Woodland Hills and Penn Hills players weighing in well over 300 lbs. However, senior MVP Cory Trudgen feels that, "Our speed made up for the size difference." Whatever the case, the team is eager to redeem itself in '96. They will incorporate a style that brings out their strengths. Mr. Kunselman says the goal for next season, quite simply, is to win games. He says the intensity of the practices will pick up in order to achieve this goal.

Time to Get Back in the Swing of Things

Just after the January thaw, the baseball team's season begins. They start weight lifting two nights a week. As soon as the basketball teams are out of the gym, the returning players move in and begin practicing for opening game. After a few weeks, the returning players tryout for the team. Then the season begins.

The past three years, Kiski has gone to the playoffs twice, missing them one year by a single game. Last year, the team was 11-8 in the section, finishing in second place. Brian O'Connor, senior, reflects on last year's season saying, "The season was great. Many juniors stepped in to play key roles on the team.

We had a lot of senior leadership, and we won the games when it counted, late in the innings."

During the playoffs, the team won a game against Woodland Hills and then lost to Seneca Valley in a close game. "I think the program is going in a positive direction," said coach Jack Jewart. "I think it's because we hold tryouts every year and it challenges the players to try harder," he added.

This year's team should be equally as good. They have many returning starters. Their goal is to go further in the playoffs and have another winning season. Best of luck to the 1996 baseball team.

In the Finest Hour of...Softball

Come rain or shine, Kiski's Lady Cavalier Softball team practiced faithfully and was rewarded for their efforts in the spring of 1995. The team, comprised mainly of underclassmen, was coached by Diane Haney. Lisa Hinkleman and Tammy Wolford were the captains, and Hinkleman was also rewarded the MVP trophy due to her outstanding pitching performances throughout the season and in the play-offs. Although the team was young, their skill more than made up for it.

The varsity team enjoyed an undefeated season, emerging as the section champions. At the WPIAL Finals, they lost 1-0 in extras innings to Baldwin. At the state tournament, they lost in the first round. However, section champions and WPIAL runner-ups are both significant accomplishments in themselves. The mere fact that they placed at states made Kiski proud. With respect to states, junior Missy Jones remarked, "It was a good experience for us, and we hope to be there again in 1996. States improved us all as ballplayers."

The juniors, coached by Nancy Goodinski, had a perfect 12-0 record. Although junior varsity does not have a playoff schedule, junior Gwen Christini said, "We could have won a playoff tournament if one existed."

Having the Time of Our Life

In the dog days of summer, the boys' and girls' soccer teams started their season with conditioning under head coaches, Adel Header and Joyce Cignetti. Conditioning consisted of distance running, sprinting, and strategical drills.

Going into the season the boys' team was confident that they would win their section, or at least make the playoffs. But injuries knocked out some of their key players. By the end of the season the Cavs were 11-4-6, just missing the playoffs by one game. Senior, Jarrod Kucharski commented, "We did very well despite all of the injuries, but we could have done better if everyone had been 100% physically. It was a great four years, and I will miss everything about it."

The girls' team started this year in a new section. In the past, the girls ruled their section. That was not the story this year. The Cavs finished with a 9-10-1. The major setback for the team was experience.

The other teams in the section were more experienced at the level of Section 5. Despite the losing record, the team became good friends. Tiffany York, said, "The team was very close. Next year the Cavs should be very strong."

A pep talk before the game is this team's secret weapon.

Strokes of Success

Although the 1995 girls' tennis team did not advance to the WPIAL play-offs, many outstanding individual performances were made. The team was coached by Ralph Antenucci and was led by senior captains Amy Jancaro and Erin Mazanek and junior co-captain Cayce Little. The team try-outs were in early August. Many team members also attended camps on their own over the summer to improve their skills.

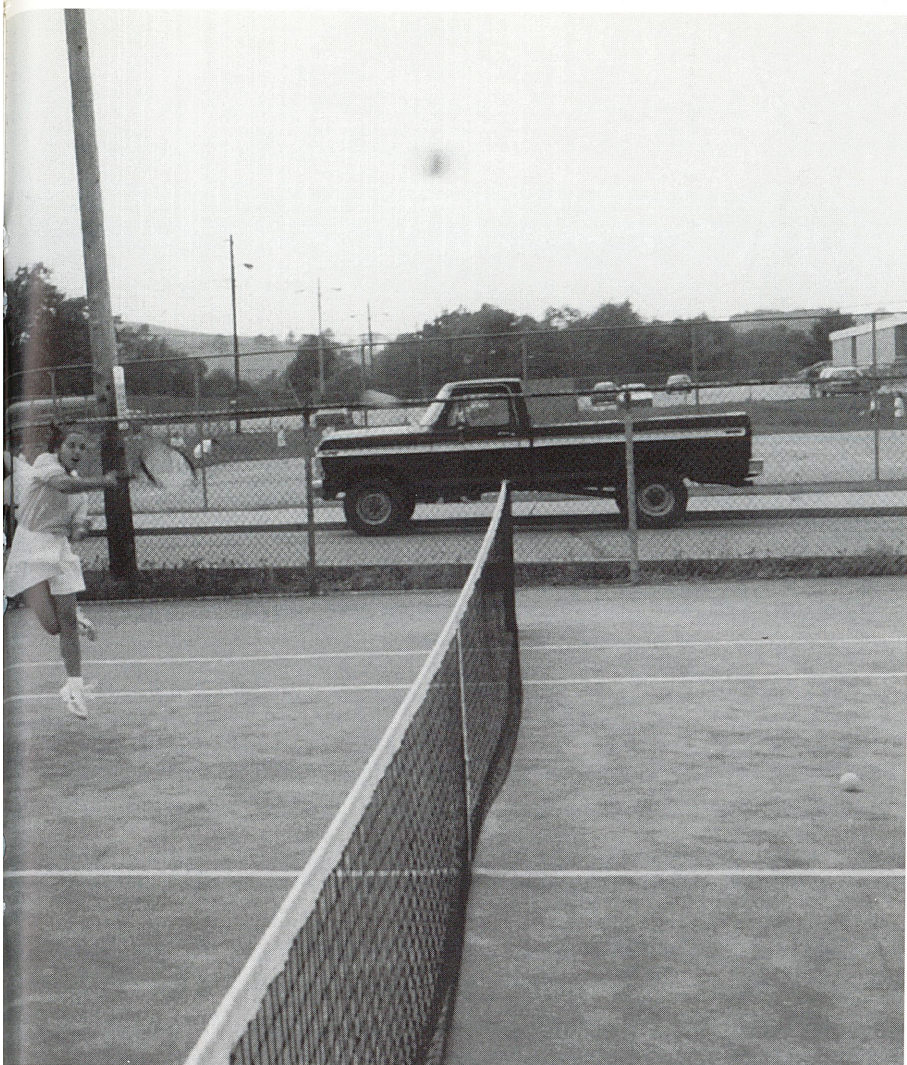

The season ran until mid-October. Kiski is in the very competitive Section I of the WPIAL. This section includes such outstanding teams as Hempfield and Latrobe, both have players with over ten years of experience. Nevertheless, Kiski approached each match with the same high level of intensity and refused to be intimidated by these teams. Individually, Jancaro and Little advanced to doubles' playoffs but were denied the opportunity to advance further due to a bad call. The girls hope to win the section in 1996. With hard work over the summer, that certainly is an obtainable goal. The boys' tennis team competes in the spring, not the autumn. They, too, are Section I of the WPIAL. Their 1995 season was very similar to the girls' season in that they did not advance to play-offs but had outstanding individual performances. Graduate Fred Jackson was the team MVP in 1995, and he advanced to WPIAL play-offs with Brad Hemphill. Hemphill, the 1996 captain, states that his highlight of the 1995 season definitely was making singles' play-offs. Mr. Santia is the boys' coach. He is looking forward to helping the boys improve their game and complete the season with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Time Is Running Out... Watch the Clock

Youth and inexperience seemed to be the catch phrases of the year for the majority of the athletic teams at the Big K during the 1995-1996 school year. This was definitely the case for the Girls' Basketball team, as well, with only two returning starters from the last year's playoff machine, the Lady Cavs of the hoops arena struggled to strike up good chemistry among the players.

While the mixture of varied levels of experience among the players may have put the Lady Hoopsters at a slight disadvantage, the squad had it's share of strengths, as well. For example, hitting the target from three-point land was no problem for several members of the team. Head Coach, Tom Pipkins, is quick to pint out his teams tradition of accurate three-point shooters. The long-time team mentor remarked, "The last couple of years, three-pointers have played a major role in our success." In fact, one victory against Norwin was spear-headed by a barrage of ten three-pointers, five of which came from senior star Brandi Lawhorn. Another important, yet intangible, advantage possessed by the Lady Cavs was their high level of dedication as senior standout Sherry Cignetti put it, "It's not easy giving up every Saturday for 8:00 practice for four months straight, especially since you have to continue to do that for three years." With that kind of committment, this young squad could surely accomplish anything they set out to do.

Time Flies By

The 1996 boys' basketball team is preparing for another successful season. In 1995, they were the Quad-A Section I runner-up. Advancing to WPIAL playoffs in 1995 capped off a Cinderella season for the Cavaliers. The captain of the 1996 varsity basketball team is senior B.J. Cernicky. Larry Rupert and his brother Dennis Rupert are the head coaches. They motivate the team to remain focused so that the timing is precise and the plays are executed well. The strengths of the team are their formidable man-to-man defense and their team spirit. Junior Andre Webb said, "When B.J. does his Best Lord before a game, it really pumps us up to play well." Teamwork is one quality that many basketball teams lack. Often, players are in it for their own personal glory. However, the Cavaliers work together to achieve their goals. This will undoubtedly set them apart from the other teams in the section at playoff time.

Time Is On My Side

What does it take to be the best? Just ask any member of the Kiski Area wrestling team, and I'm sure they could easily tell you. Though Kiski has not been known for it's wrestling in the past, the last three seasons have given us a new reputation for excellence. The wrestlers are finally getting their deserved respect from other teams. One of the very best teams here at Kiski, they are truly a force to be reckoned with.

So, what does it take to be the best? According to senior, Nathan Decker, "It takes good coaching, dedication, and a lot of hard work." Mr. Chuck Tursky, the coach that led this team to such victory, says that the team's "good work ethic" and "growing elementary and junior high teams" are the keys to their success. His ultimate goal for the team is to become WPIAL Champions.

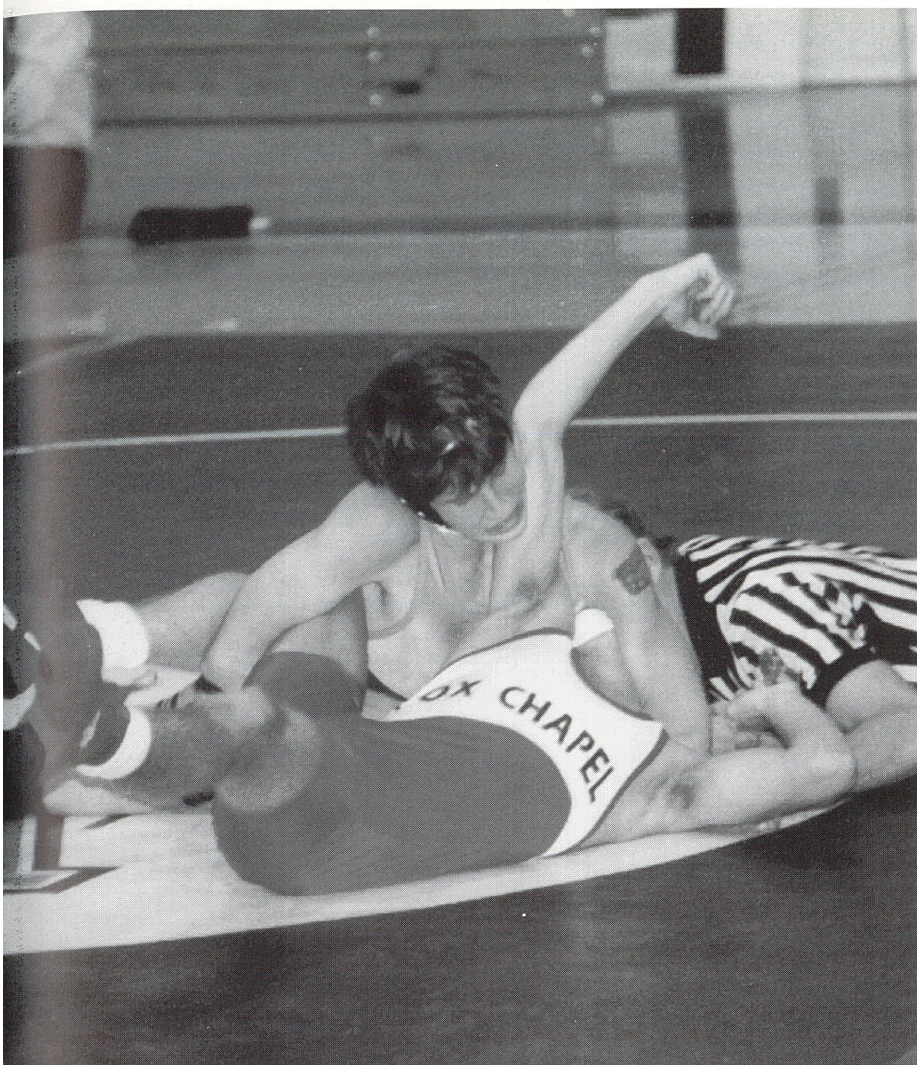

Congratulations for setting new standards for Kiski wrestling.

Time To Make A Splash

The swimming and diving teams have once again put forth their best effort into a great season. The team is coached by Shauna Jones. She believes the team has done very well this year. What makes them so great? Is it their inherent drive for victory? Or is it the long, early morning, grueling practices? According to one team captain, John Mazurek, it's their "team unity." Jessie Smith agrees, saying, "The team cheering each other on attributes to our success." She also stated, "Although they had a tough season, they improved from last year." The team concentrates on helping each other for the team's sake, rather than just improving for themselves. Because of the great foundations laid this year, Ms. Jones has great expectations for next year's team. She believes the team can win their section through hard work, determination, and concentration. The great attitudes of the team members along with their continued dedication will insure they reach this goal.

Shauna Guenther, we've heard of cold feet before a race, but isn't this a bit ridiculous?

All the Time In the World

Paul Sorisio, senior, mentally prepares himself for his next swing. Will it be a hole in one?

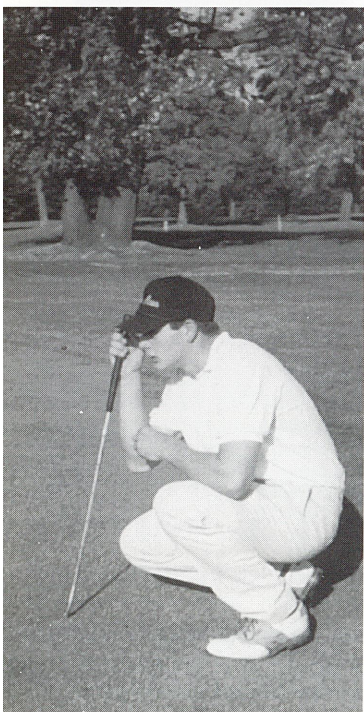

The Kiski Area golf team endured long, hard practices this year. Little did they know they'd be swinging right into one of their best seasons ever. The team had eleven wins and three losses. Also, they earned second place in their section.

"This year we had a good team," reminisces coach Al Veselicky. "The boys are competitive and stood up well with the best teams at WPIALs," he says with indescribable pride and confidence in his voice.

Most Valuable Player, senior Barry Byers, explains, "This has been our best year in five seasons. We all like our coach and get along well with each other, too." Another valuable senior golfer, Dennis Munko, adds: "We all worked on our golf strokes a lot during the summer. That led to our great success during the golf season."

After seeing the confident attitudes, wide variety of talent, and overall hard work of our team members, it looks like the success of the Kiski Area Golf Team will never not be in full swing.

Kiski Area athletic trainers are the unsung heroes of our school. They are an important part of Kiski sports. They tend to injured or sick athletes during practices and games. They are involved in rehabilitation and warm-up exercises of the game participants. To be a trainer, you must be certified in CPR and first aid. They are very much depended on and respected by the coaches and players. "It is a great learning experience. You need to be responsible and dedicated," notes head trainer and senior, Stacey McNally. "I've been doing this for five years now. We have to cover not one, but every sport. Training is a job that lasts all year, not just one season."

She speaks highly of the sponsor, Donna Rife. Ms. Rife helps them to realize that her trainers are, "Kiski's Medical Team." With some more of the already shown dedication, it looks like the athletes and coaches here at the Big K will never be disappointed with their trainers.

Time Runs Wild

They've Got Spirit! Cheerleaders motivate us when there is a lull in a football or basketball game. They bring us to our feet in pep rallies — not only to cheer along, but also to catch candy. They are the cheerleaders and they have been by our side for the duration of our high school athletic years.

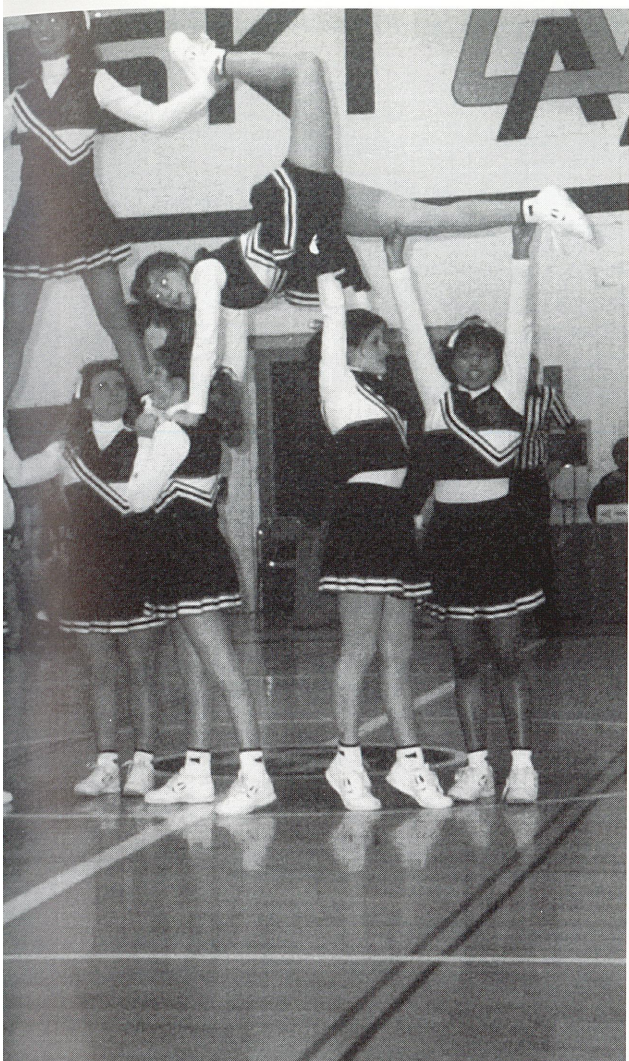

In November, the varsity cheerleaders finished twelfth in the State Cheerleading Championships. Led by senior captains Julie DePanicis, Stacey Cochran, and Heidi McKrisky, the cheerleaders work year-round practicing their routines, making signs, and preparing for pep rallies. When asked to sum up her cheerleading years at Kiski, Heidi McKrisky replied, "Cheerleading may not be the average rough and tough sport, but it's something that I have enjoyed for the last five years." Cheerleading is an activity which requires strength, concentration, coordination, and of course, a lively spirit! The difficult pyramids and tumbling routines take much practice and patience. Putting together a successful routine and getting the crowd into the game is what cheerleading is all about. Let's hear it for the Kiski Area cheerleaders. They certainly deserve much respect.

Heidi McKrisky, Heather Gautier, and Stacey Cochran all make a solid standing ground for Julie DePanicis, not only in cheerleading but in friendship as well.

Clubs and Activities

The morning KAE-TV staff is always greeting everyone with smiles. Kara Harchuck, is just one of the many anchors of the show. AV Crew members, Sarah Thompson and Karen Winters are some of the people responsible for this production.

Making the Most of Time

Kiski Area's Student Council is a highly organized group, sponsored by Dr. Pipman, that strives to continue improving our school and local community. Some of the various activities held throughout the 95-96 school year are as follows: a talent show, a prom fashion show, homecoming, a blood drive, senior citizens luncheon, Top Ten and Student Council class officers luncheon, computer data match, to name a few.

One of the most worthwhile endeavors undertaken by the Student Council is the annual Kiski Area Telethon held in the middle of December. The collected money is donated to the Salvation Army to benefit the local residents. Two dedicated Student Council members per grade form the Telethon Committee. These eight students are the heart and soul of the telethon along with Dr. Pipman, Mr. Stauffer, the AV Crew, and all of the hosts. These eight representatives began contacting the local businesses in early October asking for donations and support; in addition, many school fundraisers were also in the works. Once again the telethon was a huge success raising $12,046.00. Dr. Pipman feels, "It was a lot of hard work, but very gratifying to raise so much money." Heather Corridoni and Kara Harchuck, the senior committee members, remarked, "It was a learning year with our new sponsor, but we took it in stride and made it one of our best years ever." The Kiski Area Telethon continues to pull our community together through the donations of our high schools, elementary schools, and local residents.

The Camera Rolls On For Hours

You step into homeroom; your first reaction is to look to the glowing TV screen in the corner. The words of wisdom accentuated by faint music from the PA has become a typical part of your day. But do you ever wonder who thinks up those cute little thoughts that make you chuckle to yourself? It is more than likely the AV Crew, an eleven member team whom you rarely see, but are always there. Headed by Glen Stauffer, Media Specialist, the crew helps put together Good Morning Kiski and delivers AV equipment daily as needed by the teachers. The AV Crew also plays a major part in the production of the Christmas telathon and graduation. Veteran Karen Winters (junior) says, "Thanks to the experience I've received, I think I've found what I'd like to do in my future." Three year AV member Jamie Swank also commented, "AV is a small group of great people. We've become great friends after working so closely in the past. Every member is reliable and is a hardworker, and there's nothing we enjoy more than what we do through AV."

Like father like son, Ron Norton supervises the work of Jamie Swank and Beth Dongivonni.

Time to Make a Difference

During the week of October 5th, this year's Red Ribbon Committee broke up the mundane days of school with fun activities which promoted a drug-free theme. This was aptly dubbed Red Ribbon week. This yearly event was the most student-involved week to date.

On Monday of that week, students, teachers, and principals received red ribbons to wear throughout the week. These ribbons usually have a catchy saying that promotes a drug-free attitude. In addition, signs are put up around school with even more catchy sayings.

This year, the committee is sponsoring a tug-of-war contest as a fundraiser. Not too many details were given, but something was said about jello, which would be red, of course.

The person responsible for organizing the committee is Sylvia Rossi, a physical education teacher at the high school. She selects one person from each grade who she knows is drug free, and that person in turn, chooses five drug-free friends. She reflected on this year's group by saying, "This year's bunch of students were close. They worked hard and had fun, too." "We had a lot of fun while promoting a drug-free theme," said senior Jen Nemit. Senior Matt Frederick promoted being drug-free by saying, "Drugs are bad. Being drug-free is cool."

Let the Good Times Roll

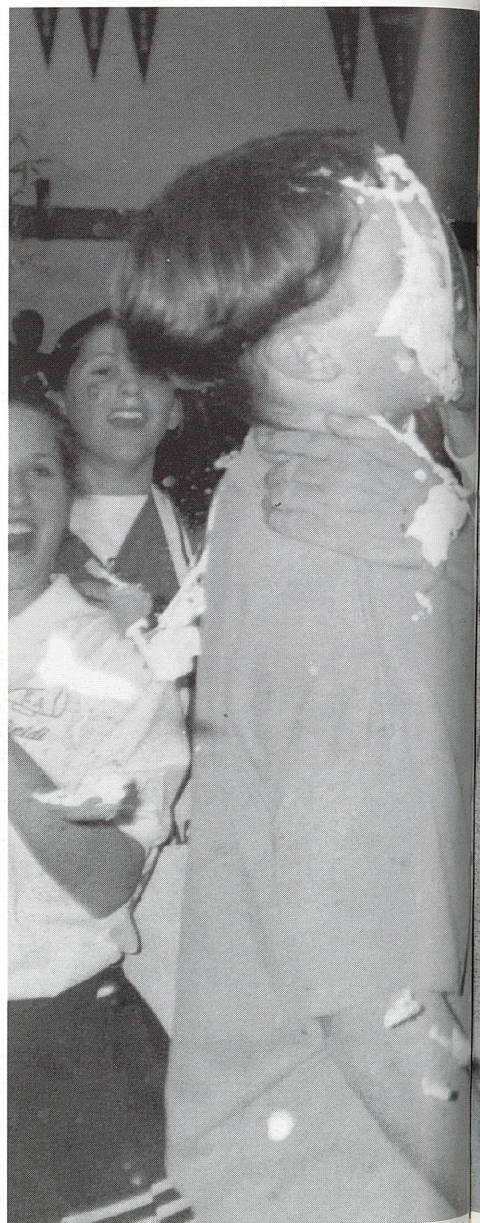

Most of you remember a time, not too long ago, when our pep rallies weren't very peppy. The cheerleaders did all they could, but something was apparently missing. Thanks to the rebirth of the Kiski Pride Club, not only are the pep rallies more lively, but the school itself is much more filled with spirit. Junior Kristen Kimble, the club's president, is responsible for its revival. She said, "I was just tired of everyone's lack of support for each other. Hopefully, the pride club will make the high school a brighter place." Kristen found a very willing and energetic sponsor in Carisa Mattu. Miss Mattu is very pleased with the turnout and the feedback she has received concerning their activities. The activities the Pride Club has in the works all look great. First, the pep assemblies have entertaining side events, like a pie-eating contest, and an obstacle relay race. Club members also spend some Friday afternoons making inspirational sports signs to recognize that season's sports and athletes. Many members attend the home and away athletic events and root for Kiski. This has been a very well-received project because our athletes get pumped up when they know their school and friends are there, cheering them on to victory. At these games, meets, and matches, club members also paint faces with blue and gold decals to raise funds. The Pride Club also wants to get involved in our community. They have started a canned food drive for the Apollo Food Bank. Hopefully, there will be more community oriented projects next school year. Congratulations goes out to Miss Mattu, and Kristen for making the Pride Club such a success in it's first year.

Every Second Counts

"I've been running the Spanish Club since the beginning of time!" laughs Mrs. Betty Love. Mrs. Love is the sponsor of our Kiski Area Spanish Club, consisting of juniors and seniors having a Spanish 4 or 5 class. Throughout the school year, they are involved in a wide variety of fund raisers.

Amidst all of the hype over Halloween here at the Big K, the Spanish Club was selling unconventional Mexican Halloween lolipops to raise money for field trips. This year, they've gone to Pittsburgh twice for Spanish cultural shows. They also have been trying to go to the Carnegie Museum to view pre-

Columbian artifacts.

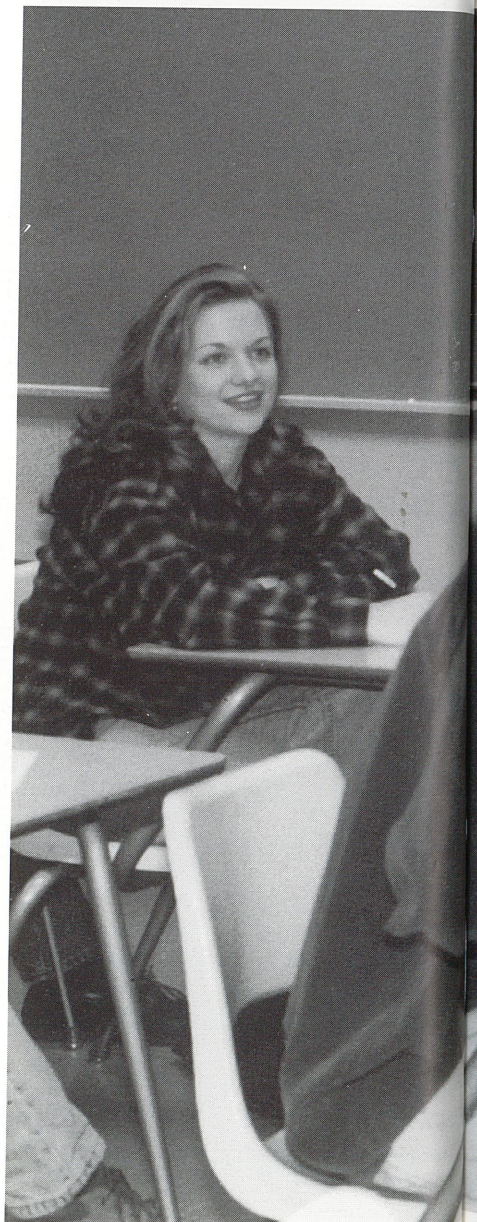

Another requirement for being in this seemingly interesting club is what they call "Love's Lunch Bunch." Three times during each nine week period, the club members spend their lunch period chowing down and chatting with Mrs. Love - strictly in español.

"These kids are a very impressive group, academically, as well as with extracurricular activities," Mrs. Love adds. Senior member of the Spanish club, Heather Corridoni, says, "No other language is as advanced as Spanish. It provides us with learning experiences about not only Spanish itself, but the Spanish culture, too."

Never Enough Time

If you ever spot those diligent students in the halls handing out absentee bulletins or passes, those are our office helpers. During their study halls or homeroom periods, they help out the secretaries by running errands or doing whatever job needs done around the school.

Speaking of the secretaries, they truly are the driving force behind Kiski Area. Whether they are typing out bulletins or taking down memos for Dr. Shaner, they seem to enjoy their job. Mrs. Jacques Davis, one of our hard working secretaries, has this to say about her career: "Hectic is all I can say about this line of work!" Another secretary, Mrs. Cora Zubal smiles, "I greatly enjoy working with Dr. Shaner and helping all of the students. What I do is a rewarding experience." Office worker and sophomore, Alisha Steurnagle, says, "I feel it my duty as a Kiski student to work in the office."

Another group of office workers can be found in the guidance suite. These valuable people are responsible for organizing college materials, running passes for the counselors, and helping students gather data about the college of their choice. The guidance workers are chosen by Mrs. Balla, and are scheduled to work during their study halls and homeroom period.

After Hours and Hours of Practice

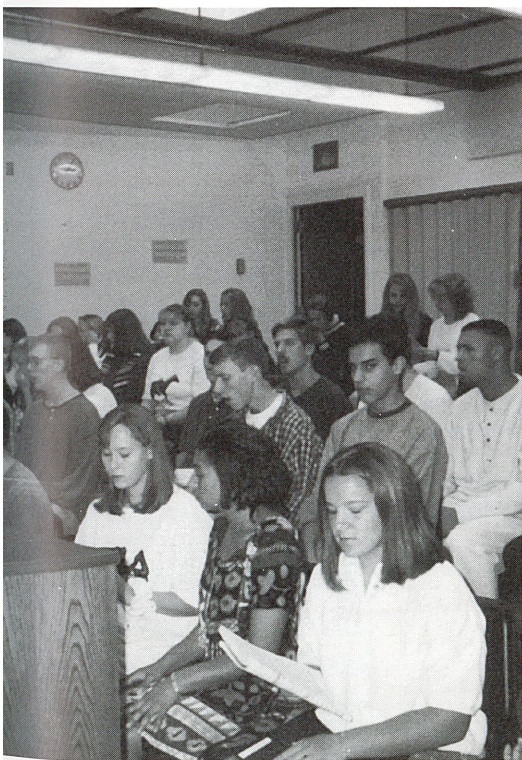

It has been an eventful year for the Kiski Area Choirs. With a successful Christmas concert under their belt and a competition in Toronto on its way, all choirs have been doing their absolute best to help maintain the chorus' excellent reputation. The competition is the most anticipated event of the entire year. The students have been saving extra cash and going door to door begging people to buy the fund-raiser of the month in hopes of earning enough to pay for the trip in full. From candy to shampoo, they've sold it all. Fundraising isn't the only preparation they have been doing for the Toronto competition. Ellen Rupert has been pounding out parts on the piano in the hopes of having each piece perfected by the time competition rolls around. The students do their best to take it one part at a time and make the broken pieces into music. This is not as easy as it may seem, however, and requires a lot of time and hard work.

If you want to see someone working hard in choir, you need simply look in on one of the show choirs rehearsing during their homeroom or lunch period. Both Mixed Show Choir and Girls Show Choir spend a week in the summer at camp learning several dances and pieces of music in the mid-July heat. Learning them is only half the battle; after that each dance gets dissected until everyone is uniform and every note correct.

Though it is no easy task, Show Choir is a lot of fun, and they get to perform for several local organizations.

For those not in choir, understanding all the different choirs may seem confusing. There is a ninth-grade choir. Then there is mixed choir which consists of sophomores. The juniors and seniors are split between two choirs. The larger of the two is called Mixed choir, and the smaller is Chorale. A very select group of singers are chosen by audition to be in the Jazz Rock Ensemble. They prepare music to perform locally. Among other performances, the Jazz Rock sang in the Casino's New Year's celebration. All the choirs are well known in the area for their talent.

Mark Time, Mark

On crisp autumn nights at football games and in the gym for pep assemblies are two places you are most likely to see the marching band perform. The marching band also participated in about five competitions this past season. The highlight of the years was at the Bands of America Eastern Regional Competition, held at West Virginia University. With the theme "Standard Time," the band swept the show in everything, including high visual effect, high music, and high general effect.

Led by George Wozniak and drum majors Erica Ciuca and Jason Brown, the band and auxiliary members endure many grueling practices. When asked to describe marching band practices in one word, junior Tami Swartzlander could only think of unprintable words to say. Despite the preparation, many of the members truly enjoy the gratification after the performances. Junior, and assistant drum major, Jason Brown said, "My hope for next year is to have a successful season and do the best we can, at Regionals and Nationals."

The members of marching band and auxiliary have a strong, family-like bond and friendships that could last many years. They will undoubtedly take their experience with them throughout their lives to reflect on and remember with a smile.

Time is of the Essence

Excellence. Professionalism. Dedication. Musicality. These are all words to describe the Kiski area band members. The Wind Ensemble, directed by Scott Koter, is thought by some to be better than some college groups. The members of the ensemble are selected, so all are sure to be talented. In addition to the usual performances, the Wind Ensemble is performing in the Mars Adjudication Festival, and, more importantly, the Pennsylvania Music Educator's Association Convention in Valley Forge, PA.

The Symphonic Band, under the direction of George Wozniak, has improved by leaps and bounds in the past few years. The symphonic band performs in mid-winter concerts, spring concert, and the PMEA Adjudication Festival at Kiski.

The Jazz Ensembles are showing marked improvement even from the excellent groups of the past. A change in the program this year is the addition of a third jazz band, which is directed by George Wozniak. The top group, consisting of Mr. Koter's proteges, is performing at West Allegheny Festivals, Alle-Kiski Jazz Festival, Jazz-A-Rama, and the Tri-City Jazz Festival in Cleveland. The jazz ensembles practice regularly after school. Lead saxophone player Lynnann Bash says, "Quality memories have been made that will last a lifetime."

Extra Time Pays Off

One memory of excellence in the case of Kiski Area music is the number of students who are selected to honors bands and choirs. These groups allow extraordinary musicians to display their abilities along side students like themselves from other area schools. This gives them an opportunity to broaden their musical horizons and meet new friends. Perhaps the most memorable aspect of these festivals is the chance to interact with guest conductors, many of whom are experienced in leading college and professional ensembles.

A staggering forty something students were chosen to take part in the Alle-Kiski Honors Band, held at Valley High School. In addition, a highest ever, fourteen students from Kiski were selected to the highly selective PMEA Honors Band. Not to be outdone, the chorus has strutted its stuff in honors groups, as well. Senior Brandi Duso, a participant in Honors Choir, County Chorus, and District Chorus, said that the best thing about participating in such groups is, "... the feeling that all of the hard work I put into chorus paid off and taking pride in all the hard work. " With all of these fantastic musicians around, a few still manage to stand out from the crowd. Seniors James Borowski and George Oberdorf were chosen last year to take part in All-State Jazz Ensemble and All-State choir, respectively. All in all, this was just a superb year at Kiski.

Time to Manage Money

The student store could very well be considered a wonderland of candy, gum, and school supplies to the naked eye. Behind that wonderful facade, the student store is a responsibility that only the brave should undertake. Run by Ms. Mag and senior, Kylie Teeple, the student store is open to help you meet your needs. The most obvious duty that goes along with having a student store is ensuring that everyone pays, because things can get a little hectic.

When asked what the most popular items are for the student store, manager Kylie Teeple, said, "Kit Kats, Snickers, basically any type of food." So whether your pleasure is food, pens, pencils, notebooks, or to update your Kiski wardrobe, the student store is a place to keep in mind and cherish always.

Who is this person? Obviously she didn't want her picture taken, but our photographer got it anyway. You better finish your sale.

Using Time Effectively

The class officers of the freshman, sophomore and junior classes have helped coordinate many important projects throughout the 95-96 school year. The freshman and sophomore duties began in the fall with the collection of $1.00 in student dues every month. These funds are to be used in the event of any family trauma. A memorial book would be donated to the library of flowers sent to the family. The underclassmen officers also plan the ever popular Freshman-Sophomore Dance held in April at the Days Inn.

The eleventh grade officers are in charge of the infamous candy bar sale. The money raised will go toward the juniors' senior year to help cut the costs of their prom tickets and class trip. The junior officers also attended the monthly Student-Parent-Faculty meetings.

All three sets of officers also attend the Building Committee meetings held every month. These officers, thanks to their hard work and effort, have made it another memorable year.

Devoting Time to Special People

What exactly is a "Buddy?" Well, the buddies are a group of high school students who volunteer their study halls and homeroom periods to help out in the Life Skills classroom. They can come in anywhere from one to several days a week. Buddies help the life skills students with everything from math to spelling, but it's not always all work. Many times they and the students will make Rice Krispy Treats, work on a puzzle, have a fun game of volleyball, or even sit back and watch a video together. Life skills student Gina Ciuca commented, "My favorite thing to do with the buddies is gym class."

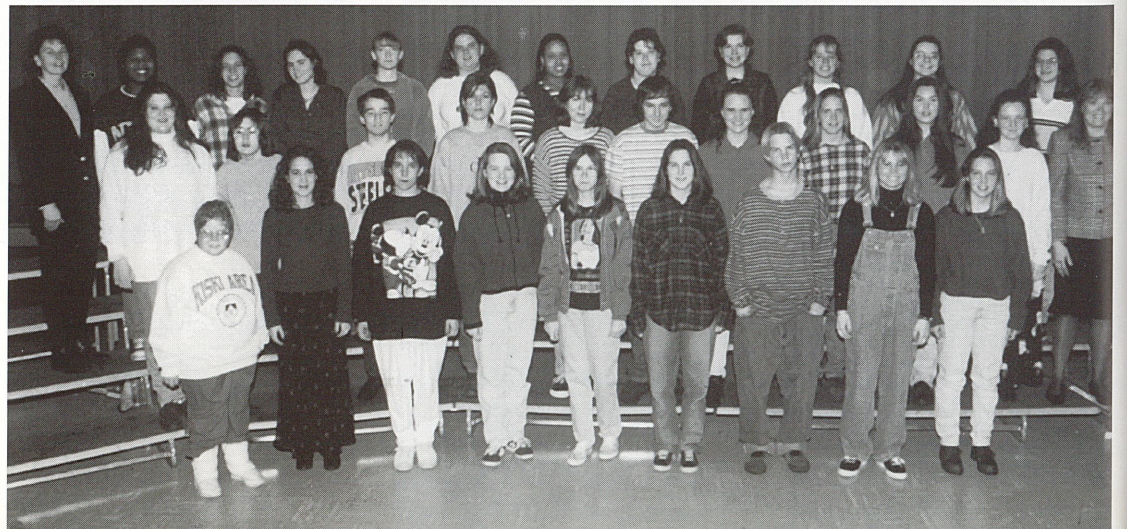

Being a buddy is fun for both the students and the buddy. There is no better part of the day than the time you get to relax and have fun with the students. They're a great group of kids who enjoy having the buddies as much as the buddies like them. Being a buddy is a great experience for anyone able to be involved.

Fun Times and Long Hours

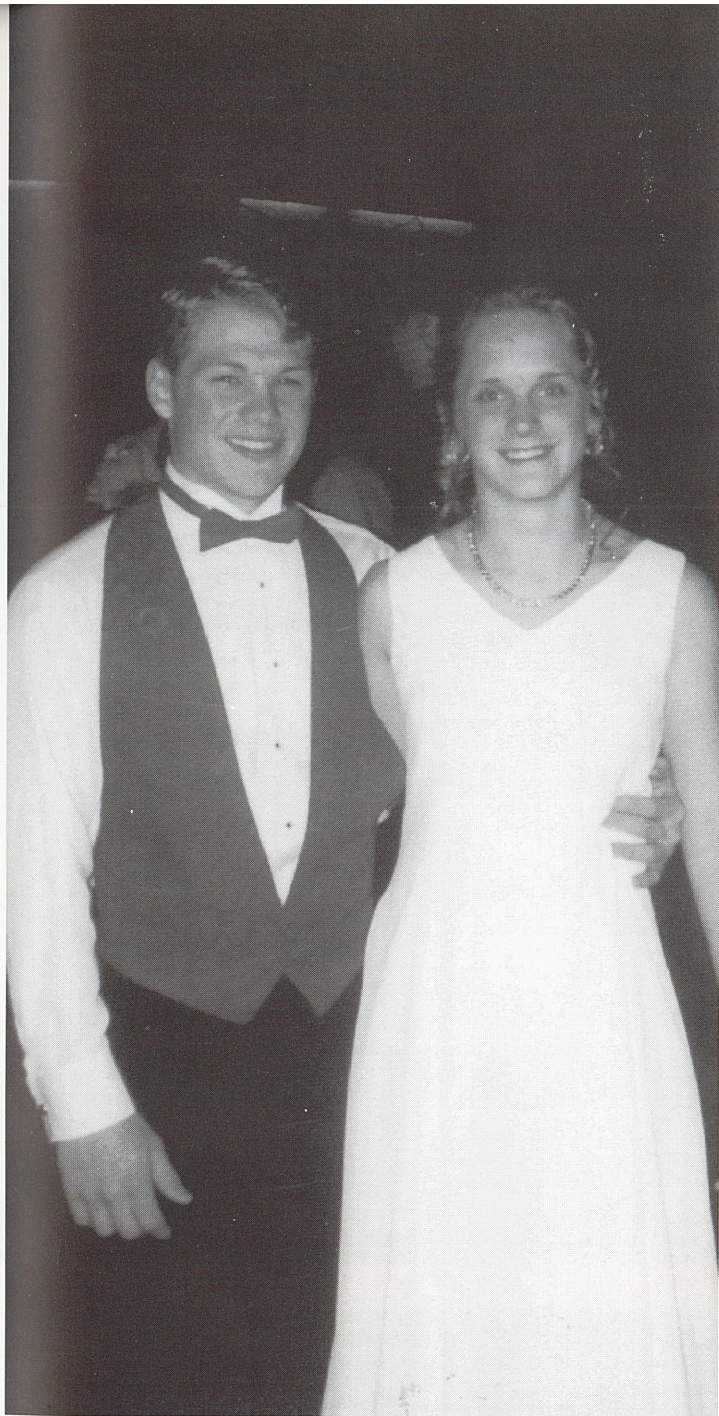

Knights in shining armor, damsels in distress, magical castles, and mystical unicorns all were part of the 1995's most enchanted evening. In reality, it was the Junior-Senior Prom held at Laube Hall; however, to most, it was a medevil ball in an Enchanted Forest. Thanks to the hard work and careful planning of senior class advisers, Mrs. Musselman and Miss Moser, and student committees, Laube Hall in Freeport was transformed into a lovely prom atmosphere. Some of the favorite activities throughout the evening were dancing, listening to the live band, enjoying the artistry of the video deejay, witnessing a few magic tricks, having a caricature drawn, and simply chatting with some friends. Whatever the activities chose for the evening, it is certain that some truly enchanting memories were created.

Time is Running Out Advertisements

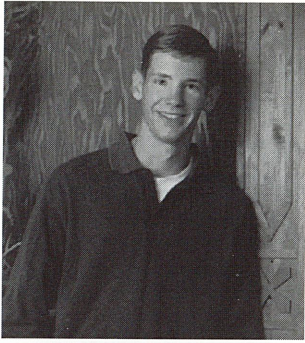

Amy Jancaro, Kelly Kamer and April McFee take a break from a busy activity period in the SAR. They better get back to work and finish working on that Parent Ad section.

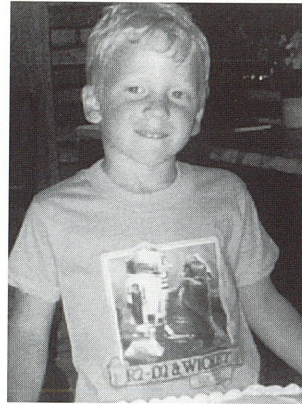

History teacher, Mr. Greg Balla, proudly supports Red Ribbon Week. What a great advertisement he is for Mrs. Rossi and her group.

The Awesome-4-some
Wishing you a lifetime of wonderful memories.
Love, Mr. and Mrs. Dykes

Megan,
You've given us so many memories. The love and friends that you've shared make us proud to be your parents. We wish you the best as you move on in your journey of life. Good Luck.
We love you!
Mom and Dad

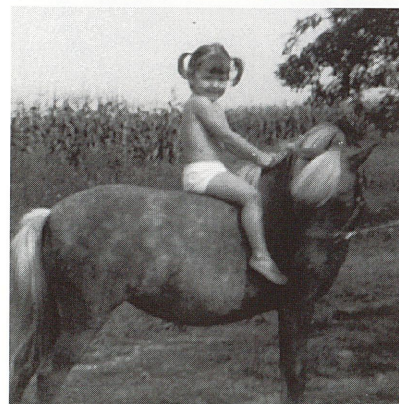

Misty,
We have always been proud of you and that will never change. Keep your chin up, a smile on your face and hope in your heart. You can do anything if you are not afraid to try.
We love you,
Mom and Dad

Get ready to "stir" things up and make them
"sizzle." Congratulations!

Stephanie, The day has arrived, as we knew it would,
a new beginning, a challenge that we know you have the strength to conquer. Hold true to yourself, use the strength and knowledge that has gotten you this far, to reach for the sky. Good Luck at Pitt. We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments.
We'll always be here, we want what you want-go fo
it all!
We love you, Mom and Cary

Stacey, Being a Super Bowl baby, you scored big. You went from gym suits to dance costumes to a stunning young lady. You have brought us so much love and happiness and filled a place in our hearts no one could ever fill. Be yourself and make your dreams happen!

Love, Mom, Dad and Jim

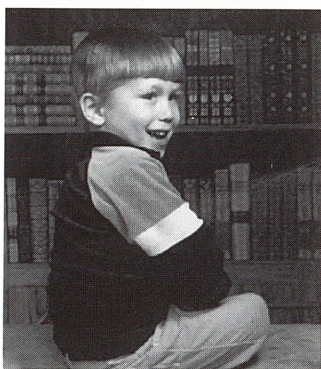

Always did, still does, always will! May all your dreams come true. We've enjoyed every minute with you. May your soccer attitude stay with you! Good luck at IUP. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Dana, Rich, and of course, Alexander.

Jeffrey, Congratulations on a job well done. We are very proud of all you have accomplished so far by your hard work and dedication, and we're looking forward to you fulfilling your future goals. We wish you success and happiness in the future. Also, thank you for all your support and hard working days with our business. Jeffrey, we are very proud of you!

Love, Mom, Dad, Tyff, and Chris

Kelly,

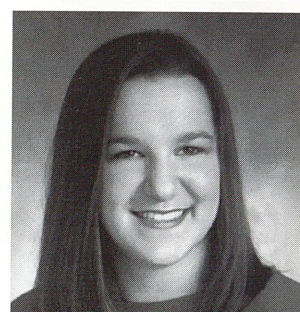

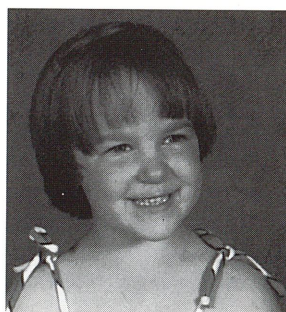

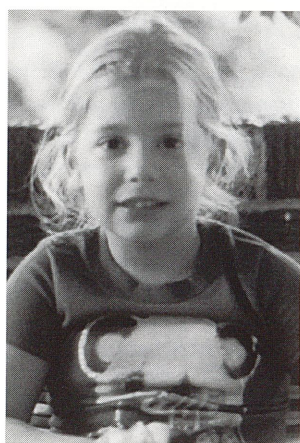

Life wasn't easy for the three of us, but we always hung in there together. Thanks for always being there when we needed you. Continue giving everything your best shot, and you will go far. We are so proud of you.

Love you very much,
Mom and Nicole

Jess, Congratulations in all that you've accomplished. We know that with your strength and drive to do your best, success and happiness will deservedly come to your life. You have brought to us all the joy and happiness a daughter could possibly bring. Your kindness, gentleness, and thoughtful ways have brightened our family. You'll always be our "punkin'!"

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Anne, You are a ray of sunshine. You never cease to amaze us with your intelligence, sense of humor, and determination. Stay focused, the world is yours to conquer. We love you, Mom, Dad, and Elise

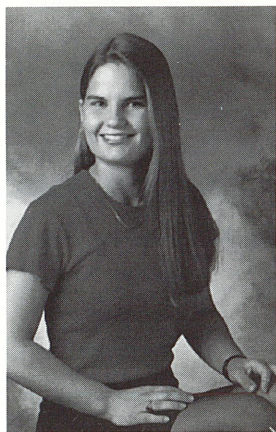

P.S. Did I tell you?

You are an adventurer on a voyage of discovery...

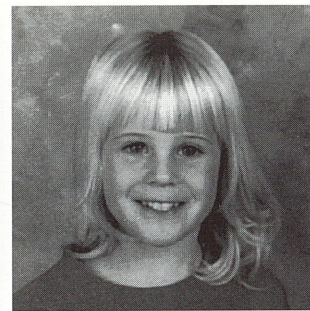

Good luck, Betsy. We love you.
Mom, Dad, Chip and Ann

To my granddaughter Missy Mornes, and to the Kiski Area High School Girls' Softball Team, you are a great group of girls. You have shown us all how to win. To the seniors on the team, good luck in all that you do. The team will miss you. To my granddaughter Missy, I am so proud of you. The team has brought more joy to me than I can express. Again, Congratulations!

Pap

To the finest accomplishment of my life — My Baby Girl: with love, much respect and best wishes for a continued successful life. We love you, Baby Girl's Mom and Clydie

Dear Shoo:

From crayons to graphic calculators, our little girl grew up too fast. You have worked hard and always did your best. We couldn't be more proud of you! Your future awaits. Love, Mom, Dad, and Dan

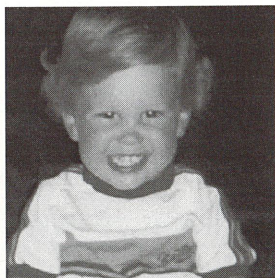

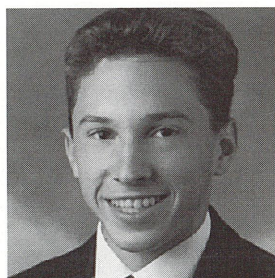

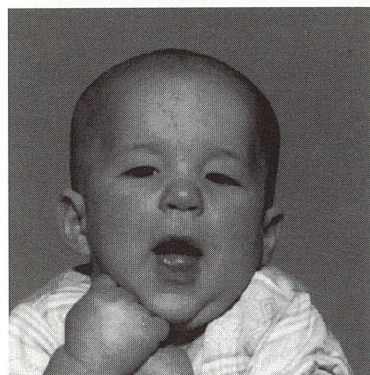

Congratulations Stephen—

We are very proud of you.

Mom and Dad

Ryan Wisniewski—You have brought much joy and happiness to our lives. You have grown into an amazing young man. We are very proud of you. We know you will succeed in all you attempt to do. Love and Kisses,
Mom, Dad, Jen, Nana, and PapPap

XO

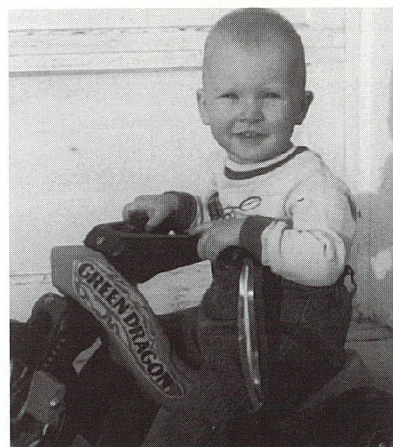

Steve, You have been a blessing to us since the day you were born. We couldn't ask for a better son than you. We are very proud of all of your accomplishments and the person you have become. You are truly our shining star!

We love you so much, Mom, Dad, Bill and Chris

Congratulation, Nathan! We hope you follow your dreams. We're very proud of YOU.

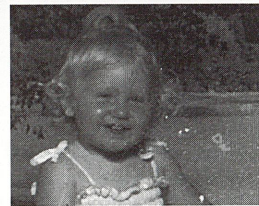

All our love,
Mom, Dad, & Laura &

Congratulations and love from your MA family.
p.s. Do I gotta tell you how old I am, NOW?

Congratulations Amy "Sue"! You "dun" good! For 17 years you have provided us with lots of joy and pride. And this is just the beginning! Best of luck at F&M and whatever you do will mean success!

Love, Mom and Norman

Selena

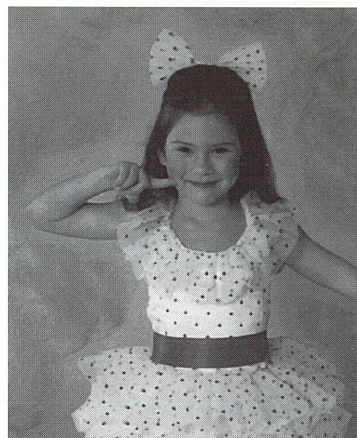

It's wonderful realizing a dream...knowing that the little girl who once filled your life with joy and your heart with love has grown into a special woman who still makes you feel that you're a very important part of her life...

I hope you know how proud I am of you—of the choices you've made, the goals you've accomplished, the respect that you've won. And I hope you know, too, how much I love you, and how much I wish you all of your own dreams come true.

I Love You! Mom

John—We know that you have what it takes to be successful in your life. You have worked hard and reached many goals that you have set for yourself. Continue to set your goals high. We love you and are proud of all you have accomplished. Love, Mom, Dad, Misty and Carrie

Lauren,
A dream is a wish your heart makes...
may all your dreams come true.

Love,
Aunt Jo

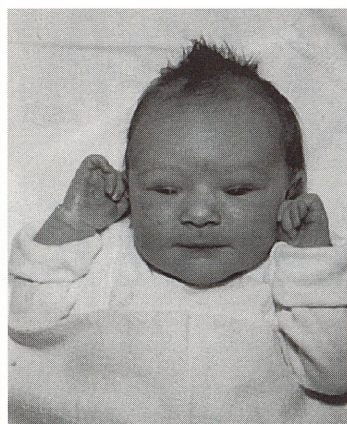

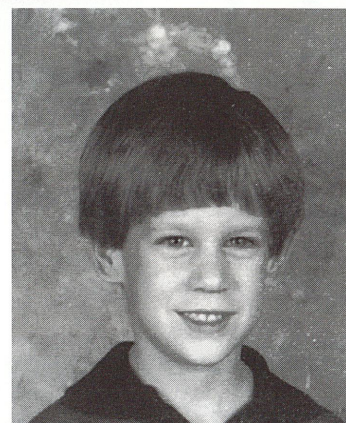

Kelly,
We are so proud of the young woman that you have become. You are charming, witty, and beautiful. We love you very much. May all your dreams come true.

All our love,
Dad and Sheila

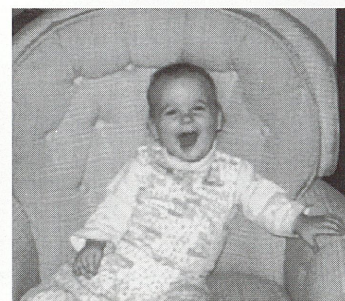

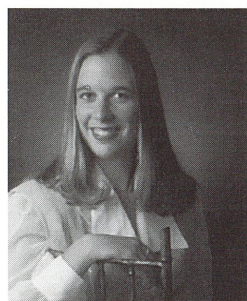

Jason Poleski,
You have brought us so much joy and happiness. May your future be blessed with success in all you do. We're very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Brad

Heather, Right from the very first moment we saw you we fell in love with you and you have just grown sweeter as the years have gone by. We're so very proud of your accomplishments and wish you all the best life has to offer. Remember you can do anything by trying your very best. We believe in you!

Love, Dad & Mom

Amanda—Happiness begins with you. We are very proud of you. We love you for what you have become. Always believe in yourself.

Love—Mom, Dad, Matt & Joey
